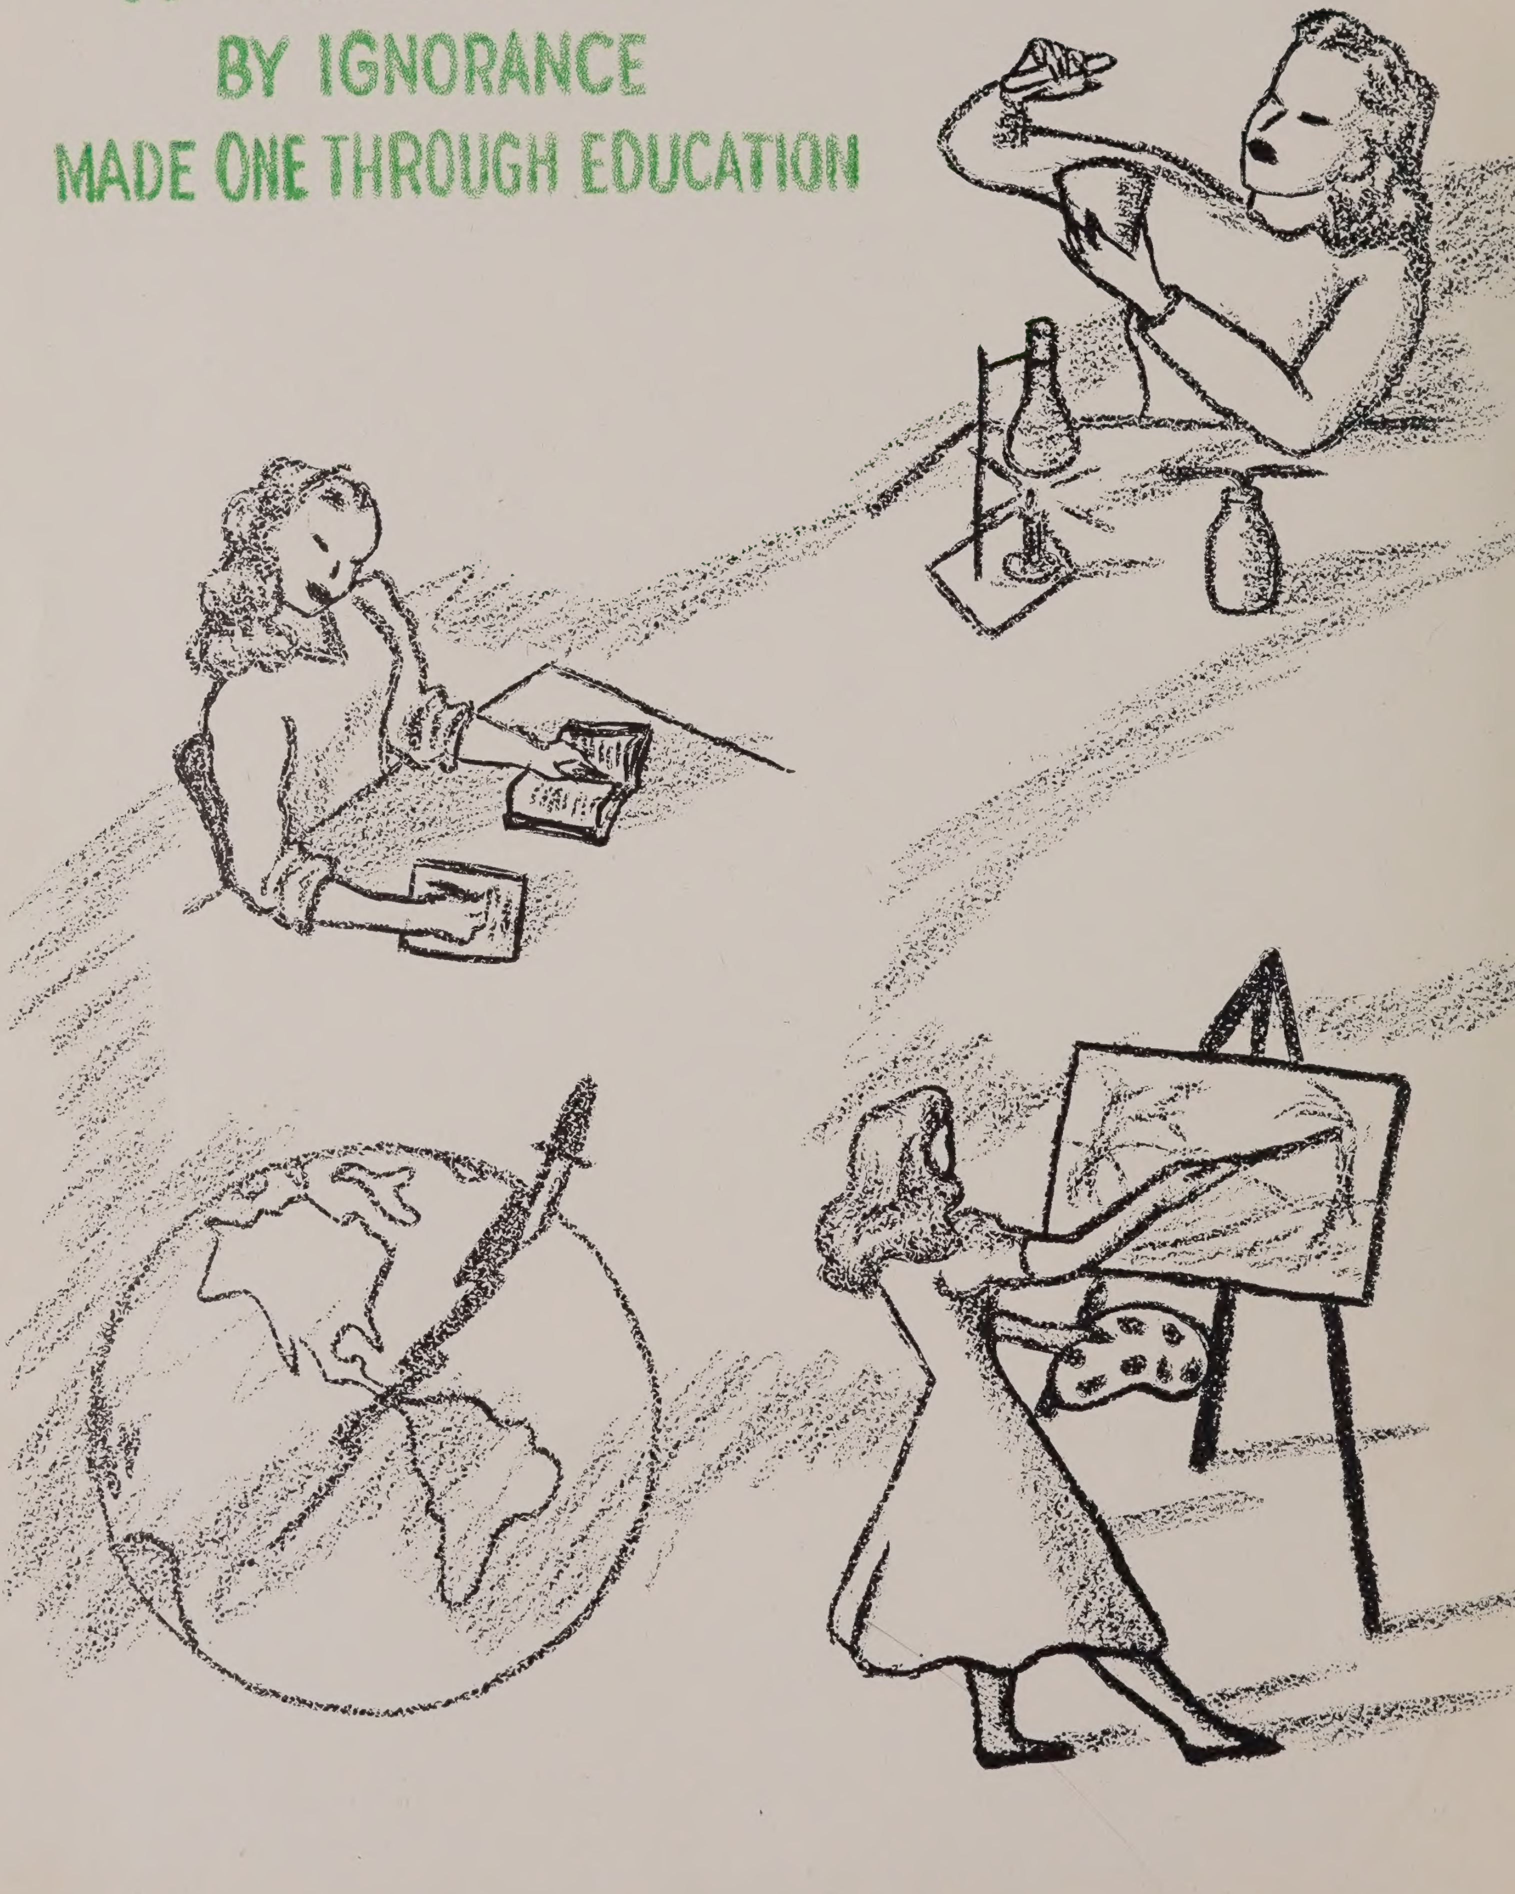
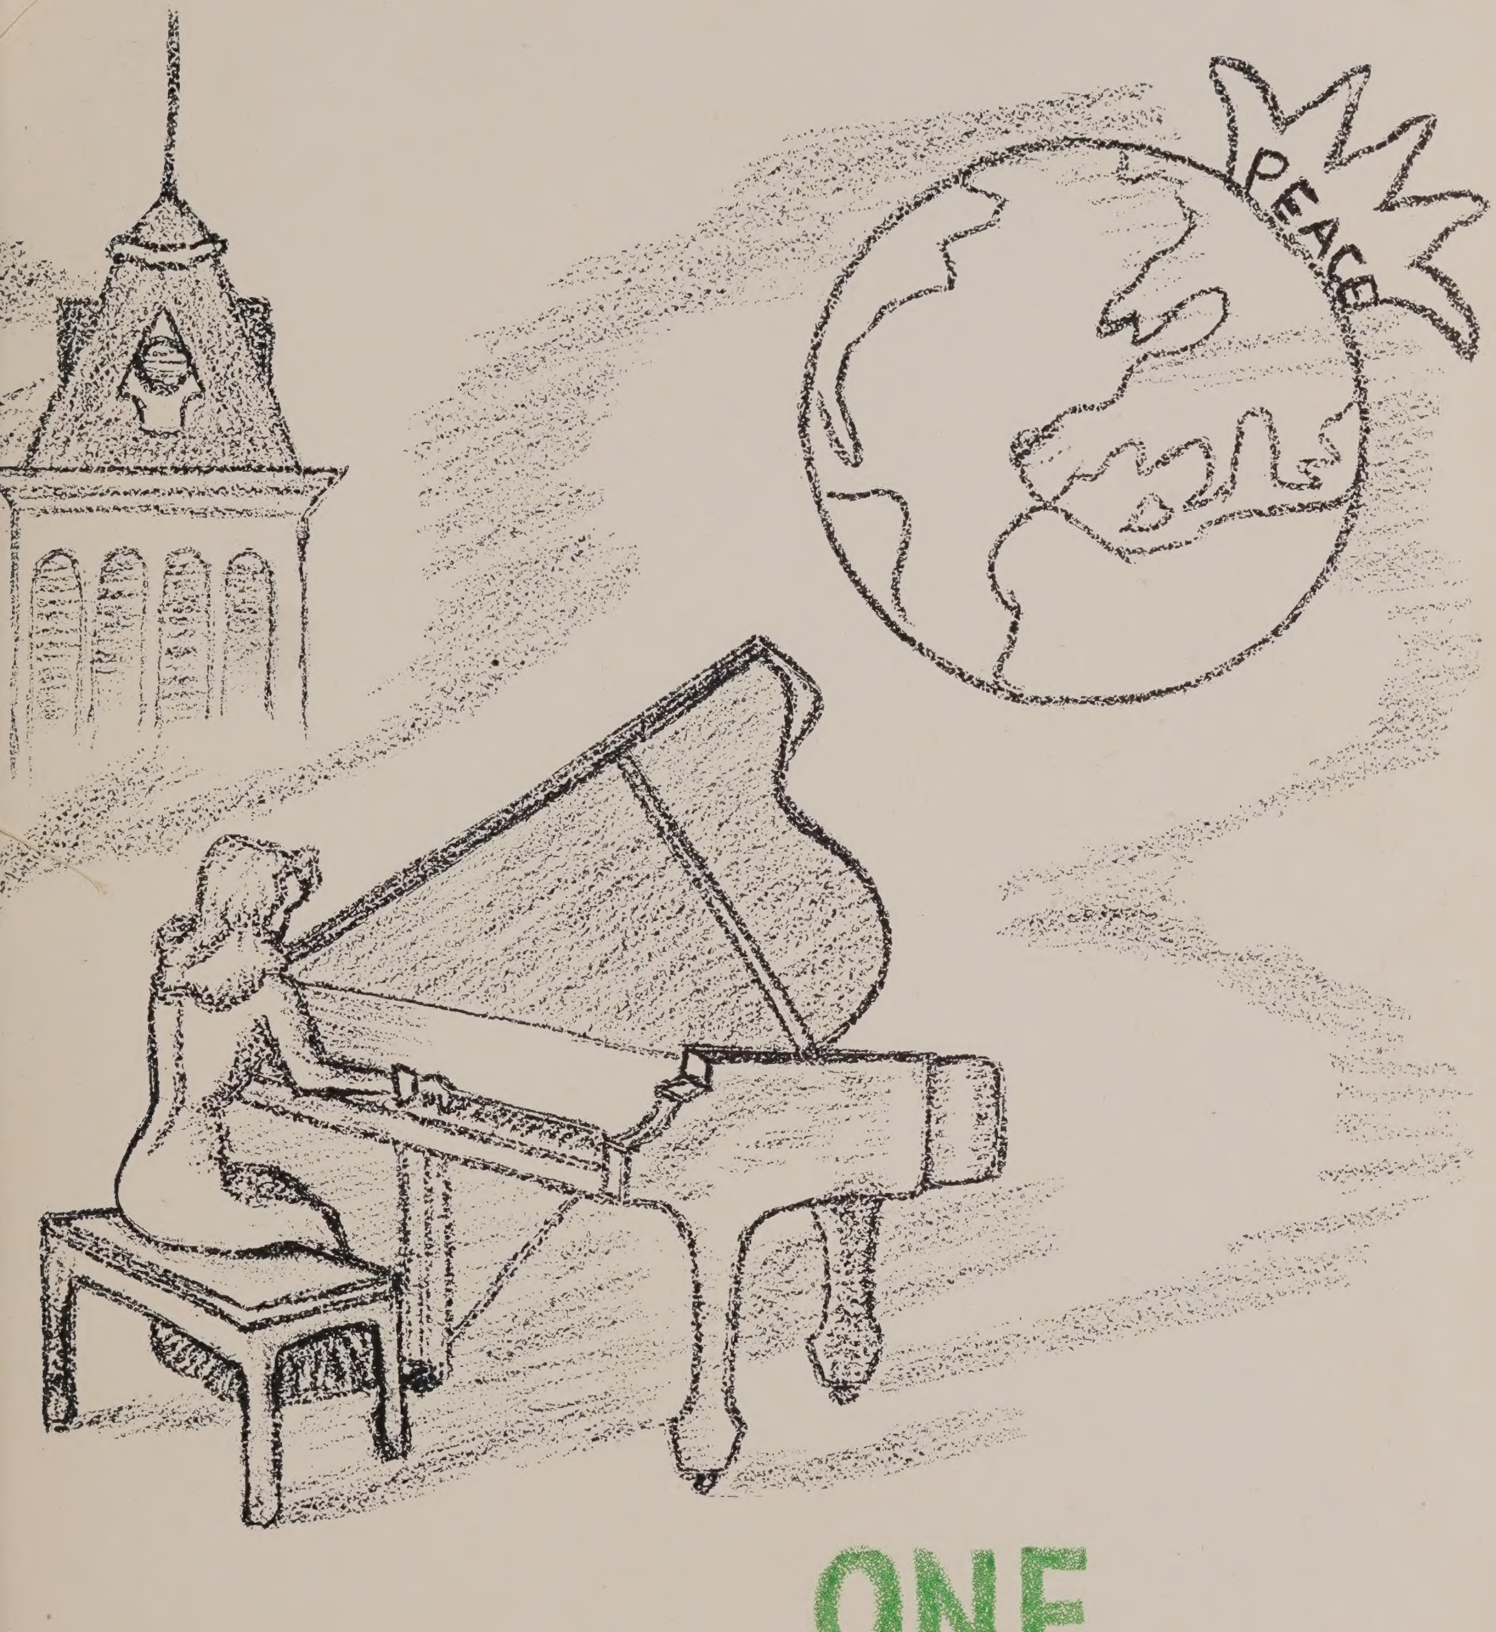
A WORLD DIVIDED BY IGNORANCE MADE ONE THROUGH EDUCATION





ONE

DEDICATION

In striving to make "One World" through education, we pause to dedicate this book to our President, Dr. R. L. Brantley, who has our profound gratitude for his unceasing efforts in helping us to become better citizens of the world. His loyalty and interest in the activities of each student make him irreplaceable and unforgettable.

Intermont is a symbol of knowledge with Dr. Brantley as her guard. His qualifications for that job prove his ability. With his kind words, helpful interest, and unshakable ideals, to which he constantly leads us, he has quietly gained a firm place in the hearts of all who have ever known him. As our guide in school life he has shown the importance of learning and the achievements made possible by it; and in our spiritual life, he has been an inspiration by living those ideals which he holds high before us.

So it is with sincere appreciation that we, the Senior Class of nineteen forty-eight, dedicate our Intermont to Dr. Brantley.

Dr. Brantley received his A.B. and M.A. degrees at Mercer University, and climbed still higher to obtain his Ph.D. at George Peabody College. At Mary Horden Baylor College, he was professor of English and Journalism. He was Treasurer at Bessie Tift College and held positions in the English and Journalism Departments. He served as dean at Georgia System Evening College and was editor of the Southern Automobile Journal for two years.

Miss Marguerite Pflug

DEAN OF FACULTY

A woman of quiet charm and gentle dignity, administering wisdom to all who seek, is Miss Pflug. She stands as a light to guide college youth to knowledge, and instills in them sincerity and patience as they learn and aspire.

Miss Pflug is a symbol of Intermont; they are a part of each other; unselfishly serving to further ideals and principles of youth.

She attended preparatory schools in Austria, Germany, and Switzerland and received her A.B. degree and Ph.B. at John B. Stetson University. She has done summer work at the University of Berlin and the University of Geneva.

ADMINIS

Miss Dorsey

DEAN OF WOMEN

Dignity, sincerity, and wisdom have made Miss Dorsey a guiding light to every Intermonter. Knowing her is a challenge to students to strive for higher ideals and to reach for all they are capable of obtaining. Her personal interest in each and every student makes her a friend to all.

Miss Dorsey received her A.B. degree at the University of Richmond and her A.M. at Columbia University. She has done graduate study at the University of Chicago and Harvard University. She was teacher and Director of Religious Activities at Women's College, and Dean of Women, Registrar, and Associate Professor of Religion at Coker College. She served as Dean of Women of Campbell College and on the Mortar Board.

Mrs. Seay

ASSISTANT DEAN OF WOMEN

A great lady presides over the office of the Assistant Dean of Women. A sweet and gentle lady whose charming smile brightens the day and endears her to the hearts of all. Her friendship is truly an honor, and her wish to lend a helping hand makes her a welcome and familiar visitor on the halls.

Her sparkling wit and genuine enthusiasm are never to be forgotten. "Mumsie" is a part of all we love at Intermont. Each girl who departs from the Intermont family takes a treasure chest of memories filled with jewels like our "Mumsie". She is truly a queen of culture and ideals.

TRATION

Mr. Snodgrass

BUSINESS MANAGER

Courteous, friendly, and efficient in every way is Mr. Snodgrass. He gives freely of his time to students whether in matters of business or showing movies on Saturday nights. It seems he can perform the impossible. If anything is needed, Mr. Snodgrass can always secure it for you.

Not only is Mr. Snodgrass a valuable person at Intermont, but he is an ideal host. He and his family have entertained V. I. girls on many occasions, and such visits are looked forward to throughout the year.

Mr. Snodgrass received his A.B. degree from Emory and Henry College. He has taught in Liberty Hall and Virginia High School and was principal of Barrack Virginia High School.

MARY FRANCES ALEXANDER
Liberal Arts
Newbern, Virginia

MARIAN BALDWIN
General Culture
Connellsville, Pennsylvania

FRANCES BARKER
Secretarial
Bristol, Tennessee

Senior

Mary Frances Alexander—This easy going sweet natured girl is the kind who will always lend a helping hand. She is never too busy to say "yes" in answer to any request. Newbern, Virginia, must be proud of her. Mary Frances always has a "Hi" accompanied by a quick, cheery smile for everybody. In other words, she has all the qualities that she will need to become the nurse she wishes to be—a good nurse, too. She has graced our two years at V. I. by being in the Roanoke Club, Y. W. A. and Y. W. C. A. A study in poetic gentleness is Mary Frances.

☆

Marian Baldwin—Marian came to us from Pennsylvania, and she'll not let you forget it either. She says, "It's a grand place." Her manner is quiet, but she has that subtle wit that wins all who pass her way. Marian's principle interest is in athletics, serving as Secretary-Treasurer of the Athletic Association, and a member of the Boots and Saddle and H_2O clubs. Swimming is her favorite sport, however, and to be an instructor is her ambition. To you, and that certain someone, Marian, we wish you years of happiness and a pool full of fun.

Frances Barker—We certainly do like those morning sessions in the "Hut" don't we, Frances? We will miss them next year, but we will miss you even more. Frances is the girl with the silken hair and be-a-u-ti-ful complexion. In fact, we think Frances is a lovely girl, and she's mighty popular, too. It is our guess that Frances will get her M.R.S. before too long, and she deserves the happiness that goes with it. Then if she chooses a career in business, as she says she might, we know she will be a success.

Bettie Lane Barnhill—The girl with the sunny smile and big blue eyes could only mean Bettie Lane Barnhill, who is always full of laughter and has such a winning disposition. When asked to do something, Bettie always accepts with that "I'd love to" expression, which makes all of her classmates, teachers, and friends like her even more. Bettie Lane is president of the Day Students Club, Vice-President of both her Junior and Senior class, and is a member of the INTERMONT Staff. We are sure that Bettie will be one of the "top" students on another campus next year.

☆

Ann Marie Bingham—"May I have your attention, please?" You cartainly may, Bingham, you're just the kind of gal it's easy to pay attention to. Her sparkling "Jersey" wit and shining blonde hair have made her well known and a favorite of all. Her full schedule of activities includes being President of Delta Psi Omega, Treasurer of the Curry Club, Vice-President of the Y. W. A., Assistant Portrait Editor of the INTERMONT, and cheerleader for the Senior class. She's also the star of many of the Dramatic Department's productions. Yes, Ann, you may have our attention and the title of "Most Collegiate".

Edith Bishop—"Has anyone seen my English book?" Senior Hall echoes with that sweet little scream! That's "Edie". She always greets you with a "Sweetie Love," and it makes your day twice as bright. "Edie" is so lovable that she will stay in our hearts long after we leave V. I. She is past Secretary of Student Government, a member of the Glee Club, Boots and Saddle Club, Y. W. A. Cabinet, President of the Kentucky Club, and the INTERMONT Staff. She loves to sing and ride and dance. Truer Southern charm is hard to find. To "Edie" we say, "Good luck at U. K."

MARJORIE BLACK—Margie, the girl with the perpetual smile. In her gracious and friendly manner, Marg has found a place in our memory. She's from Pennsylvania but we hear her heart has gone to Alabama. Even though Margie is truly the feminine type, she was outstanding in sports in her Junior year making varsity hockey and basketball. She has been busy these past two years preparing to be an efficient secretary, and we are confident she will succeed. She has been on that essential typing staff of both the Cauldron and the INTERMONT. Thanks, Margie, for brightening our days at V. I.

☆

LUCY BLACKWELL—Here's to a girl who is tops. Lucy is a sweet, calm little girl with beautiful dark curly hair. The people who don't know Lucy well are missing something for she loves to talk, and she has a sense of humor that gives rise to some real witticism. Lucy is a good sport, and she is a very unselfish girl. She is also very easy to live with, isn't she, Jo? Lucy has been a member of the Tumbling Club, Y. W. A., Y. W. C. A., and B. S. U. Lucy, you have been a song to us—"Sweet and Lovely."

BETTY BOATMAN—From Richmond, loves horses, long blonde hair—sounds like "Boat" to me. She's the gal that always gets out of biology lab so early and does her work well, too. Biology isn't all she does well, for she is one of V. I.'s very best horsewomen. Evidently the Boots and Saddle Club agrees with us on that, for they elected her as President. "Boat" is also Assistant Sports Editor of the INTERMONT, a member of the Athletic Association, Old Dominion Club, International Relations Club, and the Art Club. Busy, yes, but she is never too busy for a little gab session. Here's to a grand gal.

Frances Bowers—They say men are partial to blondes and so are we when we see Frances' lovely locks, even if we are green with envy! For two years we've watched Frances charm her acquaintances into close and admiring friends, who see in her a ray of sunshine and a barrel of fun. Interest and dependability are two more of her winning traits. She has put these into excellent use as a member of the Cabinet of the Y. W. C. A., a member of the Day Students Club, and the Y. W. A. It is with an affectionate farewell that we wave Frances on her pathway to success.

☆

Bettie Alice Boyd—Bettie has a secret, but she doesn't know it. How can we get good marks without wearing out our brains, Bettie? It looks easy, but it just won't work! Here's a Senior who sticks to everything she starts until she's finished, but who always has time for being friendly and cheerful. She is President of Y. W. A., a member of the Kentucky Club, the INTERMONT Staff, the B. S. U. Cabinet, Alpha Pi Epsilon—and she can add winning the Secretarial Scholarship to her list of accomplishments. We're at least smart enough to know that there's a very nice future waiting for her.

☆

Cathryn Brewer—Guess who's around the corner when you hear "Yankee Doodle Dandy"? You're right, it's Kay Brewer! This loyal New Jersey-ite keeps herself occupied just being friendly and full of fun, and she keeps us busy trying to keep up with her! Naturally she's in the New Jersey Club and she's president of it too! Y. W. A., Y. W. C. A., Art Club, and hockey are among some of the other interests of this versatile girl. Wherever you go from here, Kay, we hope you'll get a chapel seat near the door so you can still be the first one out!

Senior

HELEN BURGARD—A flash of bright teeth, a whirl of gleaming red hair, and a hearty laugh—there's "Burgard"—one of the merriest gals around these parts. Helen is from New Jersey, and as far as she is concerned, there isn't a better state to call home. We hear her saying to everyone "Let's catch the Tennessean." Going where? New Brunswick, of course! Helen belongs to the New Jersey Club, Seven-Up Club, and Red-Heads Club. To our "Most Stylish" Senior who really looks as though she just stepped from Vogue—may your book of dreams come true and your ambitions be fulfilled.

☆

JOYCE BURK—"I just can't find X!" Now this could come from most anyone, but there's only one Joyce Burk who could step in and take charge of the situation—math, that is! She is one of the few "brains" that we're privileged to have at V. I. in that department. Not only is she good at math, but she's just good—period! While we're struggling away on lessons, Joyce is having fun in the Nostrae Filiae Club and Day Students Club. After college she plans to be an accountant; and even if we can't keep our figures straight, we'll chalk up a big "1" for Joyce.

MARIAN BURKE—"Burkie" is a friend we'll never forget. Her quietness and shyness, we assure you, is just a surface deception, for she is the life of every party. A busier girl we have yet to find. Wonder just when she gets around to the books for she belongs to the Home Economics Club, is Social Chairman of Y. W. A., Secretary of the Senior Class, a member of Student Council, the Capitol Club, and Phi Beta. Her charming personality never fails to win all of us, and if you need any advice, sympathy, or just a good friend, we recommend our "Burkie."

Virginia Case—"Mumble, mumble, mumble, I don't want to leave the jungle, oh, n-n-n-no!" Ever heard that before? If you have then you know Case. Memories of the song contest, naturally. She has wit with a capital W! If you ever want to learn a new dance step, then look up Case because she's your girl. That dead-pan expression and "Now you know I wouldn't do a thing like that" have been reasons for lots of fun and laughs. Her smiling face has brought sunshine into the Old Dominion Club, Y. W. A., Y. W. C. A., and B. S. U. Things will be quiet around the campus without you, Case.

☆

Wanda Eugenia Cervarich—When brains were passed out, we know that Wanda was standing in the very first row. We admire her for it though. She is quiet by nature but a real "go getter." Never a minute is lost by Wanda, and her time is well spent. She claims membership in the Seven-Up Club, Boots and Saddle Club, Y. W. C. A., Y. W. A., B. S. U., and Phi Theta Kappa. The International Relations Club has been up and coming under her presidency. Among ambitions, Wanda has checked occupational therapy. We wish you luck, Wanda, in whatever you do, for you will always be helping somebody else.

Edna Beatrice Chappell—Those eyes—that hair—her clothes—and she has the nicest personality. Edna, with her inquisitive look, is always ready for a little chat—on about almost anything. She is sincerely interested in other people; so if you have some worrying to do, she'll worry along with you. Her pretty smile hits a little spot in you and warms you through and through. She is a member of the Kentucky Club, Y. W. A., Y. W. C. A., and the B. S. U. Harlan, Kentucky, has loaned us this girl with the cute freckles and slow drawl for two years, and now we don't want to give her back.

VIRGINIA CHAR—During our two years here at V. I., Virginia has added a spice that we couldn't have done without. She came to us from Honolulu—maybe that accounts for that rare brand of charm she has. She is small and quick, so quick that it simply amazes us to watch her sailing down the hockey field. She made the varsity hockey team in both her Junior and Senior years—you have to be good for that. She is a member of the Y. W. A., Y. W. C. A., Secretary-Treasurer of Nostrae Filiae, and Treasurer of the Little U.N.O. We can never find another like our little Virginia.

RACHEL J. COLE—Dark eyes, dark hair, dark magic—that's Rachel. She's a package of beauty with brains. "Rachel, where's the tannic acid?" is a question she hears every day in the lab. Rachel has been chemistry laboratory assistant for two years now. She sings, too—in the Glee Club, and she's recognized by Phi Beta. Rachel is a native of Virginia and loves her own Chilhowie. She is active in Student Government, International Relations Club, and she is devotional chairman of the Y. W. C. A. Rachel, that dark magic of yours and your sweet smile will take you far.

MARTHA JANE COX—We are going to suggest a different time for chapel, since Martha Jane just can't seem to get up. She is so full of pep and dry humor that there is always an atmosphere of mischief and fun wherever we find her. But she has a serious side when she is presiding as President of the Georgia-Alabama Club or participating in the activities of the Art Club, Click Club, Y. W. A., or Y. W. C. A. Dark hair and eyes, and a figure that makes you look twice; while inside, a big heart that keeps stretching whenever she puts a new friend there.

June Crockett—"Who has some peanut butter?" asks this attractive and energetic brunette. June, well-known and liked, represents the high ideals of Intermont and proves it by the title of Torchbearer. It is unusual to find brains, also, in such a combination; but that is another of June's outstanding qualities. She's a member of Phi Theta Kappa, Science Club, and Y. W. A.—not to mention that important job as President of the Y. W. C. A. She worked hard on the Copy Staff of the INTERMONT, too. June, we have never known anyone like you before, and we know it would be hard to find another.

☆

Nancy Cross—Did you mention an all-round day student? Excuse me, but I think you meant Nancy Cross! Her bright smile and optimistic words are always welcome at "The Hut." It just wouldn't be home without her. It amazes us how she can eat all the time and be so little! Nancy hails from nearby Blountville, Tennessee, and we are mighty glad she came to Virginia Intermont. With such a sweet personality and congenial manner, Nancy has made herself loved by all who know her. Luck to you, Nancy, in whatever you do, for we are giving—our "Best to You."

Martha Ann Cruikshank—"Dumpsey, have you been to the Post Office yet? No? Well, I believe I'll 'bob' down there." This must be—well, it certainly is!—Marty. Slim, blonde, glowing with friendliness, and a cheery "Hi" for everybody, Marty is easily recognized. Her clear alto voice is always an essential in the Glee Club, and she is a valuable member of the Capitol Club. Marty has done a wonderful job on Student Government for third West in her sweet, easy, and yet, steady manner. For her qualities of sincerity and loyalty, we love her. Our list of futures shows a bright one for this girl.

DOT DAMON—"No, the mail isn't in yet," patiently answers Dot to the same question she is asked over and over twice a day. She is one of our fast moving Northerners who gets things done in a hurry—done well, too. Although she is busy as a bee, Dot always has time for a hearty "Hi" to everybody, and as she is the owner of "real" laughter, Dot is ready to share any joke. Of course, she is a member of the New York Club, and her name may also be found on the rolls of the Boots and Saddle Club, Y. W. A., and Y. W. C. A.

DORIS DAVIDSON—Doris is our conscientious student. No matter how much the rest of us may fail to do, Doris is always prepared. She is small, but she is mighty and always ready to sympathize with someone. She can be counted on to do her share and more. She is President of Phi Theta Kappa, and a member of the Copy Staff of the INTERMONT and Day Students Club. Doris is loved by both teachers and students for her gentle, unselfish disposition. She always has a smile in her heart. We are proud to claim her as our "Best All-Round Day Student."

MARY EVELYN DICKSON—"Sis," with her warm personality, is a tonic for young and old alike! Her main interest is in interior decoration, but she also enjoys dramatics. With her sincere direct manner and her sense of understanding, Sis—in one short year—has become an irreplaceable friend. Quietly and easily she has fitted into the life and spirit of V. I., as she capably and willingly does all her tasks. Sis has taken part in the International Relations Club, Curry Club, Y. W. C. A. Yours, "Sis," is a rare combination of charm and poise—may we wish you the luck you so richly deserve.

Ethel Dominick—We love her no end, for she's a combination of all good and sweet things seasoned with a pinch of wit and humor. That recipe is an old one, but it turned out best in "Nookie." She comes from our capitol city, and she's naturally a member of the Capitol Club. She is past Secretary of the Home Economics Club, President of the Episcopal group of Y. W. A., a member of Y. W. C. A., and the Intermont Staff. We will hate to see her leave V. I., but the world will then learn what "Nookie" is made of—sugar and spice and everything nice.

Phyllis Nannette Early—Grace, charm, and poise—a rare combination—but it's found in Phyllis, our belle from Carolina, whose smile seems to radiate happiness wherever she goes. She's an artist, too, and talented. The clever "pickininnies" she draws are a constant source of amazement to her friends. Phyllis has demonstrated her leadership ability in her capable handling of the Presidency of the Red Cross College Unit, and she is also Secretary of the Y. W. A. Methodist Denominational group, a member of Student Government, Y. W. C. A., and B. S. U. There's a ring on her finger and a man in her heart. Here's happiness to you and Dit.

Jane Edmonds—The sparkling Senior with a slow and charming grin! Here's a native daughter of ole' Virginny, who will keep bright its memory and hers in many hearts for many years. We shall especially remember her as our thoughtful and capable Senior Class President and Torchbearer. She is also Publicity Chairman of the Y. W. C. A., hockey chairman of the Athletic Council, a member of the B. S. U., and the Old Dominion Club. We'd like to think that these few years in which we have been in contact with you, Janey, won't be forgotten by you, for we know the Senior Class will never forget you.

MARGARET ESKEW—A tinkling laughter, a heart-warming smile, a gay disposition, and a bundle of fun—those are just a few reasons why Eskew is our "Most Likable" Senior. There are so many adjectives to describe her, but right now words fail us. She came to us as an unknown part of our Junior Class, but she is leaving behind an unforgettable memory of a diamond with many facets. She is President of Modern Dance Club, Secretary of the Tennessee Club, member of the Y. W. C. A. and B. S. U. Cabinets, Varsity Basketball team, and Advertising Staff of the INTERMONT. You are more precious than gold, Margaret!

BOBBYE ESTES—"Look here y'awl" is a favorite expression of Bobbye's—a true "southern belle"—who can prove she's from Georgia by her drawl. With her flashing blue eyes and southern charm, Bobbye has kept her place at the top of our list of favorites. She always has a little smile to warm even the weariest heart. Bobbye has a face to match her lovely ways, too. She has been a member of the Y. W. C. A., Y. W. A., B. S. U., Curry Club and Delta Psi Omega. We won't be able to forget our "Georgia Peach."

JUNE FAIRFIELD—Beauty and charm go hand-in-hand with June as she makes her way among her many friends. Art is the major interest in June's life. This is understandable for June has natural talent, which she is now busy developing. No one will forget the work she did on the scroll for the song contest. During her two years at V. I., June has been Publicity Chairman of the Y. W. A., Secretary of the Art Club, on the Art Staff of the 1948 INTERMONT, and a member of the B. S. U. Use your talent, June, for we all have learned that "the best things in life are free."

Jean Feindt—If you run into a pair of mischievous, dark eyes and a cherub-like smile, you'll know it's Jean Feindt! Don't let the smile fool you, though, for you can't tell what mischief is lurking underneath it. She thinks everything and everyone was made to laugh with—and so they were! She has her more serious side, too, which takes care of her studies and extra-curricular activities; such as being Vice-President of the New Jersey Club, a typist for the Cauldron, a member of the Tip and Run Club, and the Boots and Saddle Club. Keep smiling, Jean, we'll miss you.

Billie Fleenor—Billie's the girl who's always on time, or, even better, always early. She can be found at "The Hut" before eight o'clock in the morning sitting close to a radiator, of course. Billie always has a good word for everyone. Her cheerful personality and good nature will make her welcome wherever she goes. Since she likes Home Economics and it likes her, it's our guess that she'll make a mighty good teacher. If Billie can cook like she can sew, she'll make some man very happy. Good luck, Billie.

Louise Fleenor—Louise is an unbeatable combination of a girl with a quiet and retiring manner and an arresting personality. She is a pleasant companion, and a truer friend is hard to find anywhere. Louise is a very conscientious girl, and always does her best—no matter what the task. She has been teased a lot about her driving, but she really does a good job. She must, if she has to leave home before daybreak. Louise takes part in all of the day students' activities on V. I.'s campus. Friends and pals will remember and miss Louise long after our V. I. days have passed.

Ever ready and willing to lend a helping hand, we've learned to count on Mary Jayne for many things. Crackers, chocolate, and water make up her night cap. How will we ever find her among all those books? But don't ever try to put her up on the shelf, for she will be down in a minute buzzing about as she is working at something. She belongs to the Tennessee Club, Y. W. C. A., Y. W. A., Curry Club, and Click Club. We predict for you Mary Jayne, the realization of all your dreams—you're certainly a dream of a girl.

☆

ANN FRANCIS—If you are ever watching a personality parade, you're sure to see Ann march by. Just notice her charming disposition, ready smile, and—well we just can't name all the good qualities. You'll have to see for yourself this touch of magic that invades V. I.'s campus every day to know what we really mean when we say, "She's our candidate for personality plus!" Ann is an ardent supporter of the Nostrae Filiae Club, Day Students Club, and Advertising Staff of the INTERMONT. She will certainly fill her selected corner in life, and you can bet that same corner will always be the brightest.

JO ANN FRITZ—"You failed that test"—That's Jo, isn't it? But she hasn't failed a test, you can be sure. She is only practicing on one of her impersonations, for which she is famous. Jo, a jolly, fun-loving little girl, is the owner of heart warming laughter and always adds a note of gaiety wherever she is. She also has a serious side, too, and never fails to prove her sincerity. Jo has livened up the Glee Club, Student Council, B. S. U. as treasurer, Y. W. A. as typist, Y. W. C. A., and Tip and Run Club. Thank you, Jo, for being your own cheerful self and keeping us smiling.

Louise Gaitskill—Sincere friendliness, steadfast dependability, and a genuine interest in others are just a few of the qualities which have endeared Lou to us. She loves riding on her favorite horse or swimming for recreation, but there's nothing like a good bridge game—she can beat anybody—to bring a sparkle to those friendly eyes, before she tucks third Main in for the night. Besides holding a membership in Student Government, Lou belongs to the Boots and Saddle Club, the Kentucky Club, and the Intermont Staff. Here's to Lou—a "true blue" gal.

Nadine Gillenwater—"Hey, Nadine, who's going to win the ball game tonight?" "Kingsport, of course." Yes, the Kingsport-Bristol rivalry is even contagious in "The Hut." Besides having pride in her home town, Nadine takes pride in her school. She is always interested in the activities of V. I. A lovely brunette and a stately lady, Nadine is a charming blend of personality and attractiveness. It's our idea that she'll be tops in whatever field of business she may choose. Why not? We think Nadine has the goods. In fact we know she has!

Helen Glazebrook—This petite Richmond lass with all her charm and grace is a true Southerner, displaying her Dixie attractiveness in her dimpled smile, a friendly, sincere one. You could recognize that infectious giggle and sparkling voice anywhere. She's interested in art, she's talented in art, and she's majoring in art. Helen is Assistant group editor of the Intermont and a faithful member of the Y. W. A., Y. W. C. A., B. S. U., and Art Club. A fashion plate of style, Helen possesses a natural poise, a lovable personality, and a southern accent straight from the heart of Virginia. A very happy future to you, Helen.

SALLY ANN GRAHAM—Of course, you know this girl, but very few associate the name of Sally Ann with her. She's always smiling and has a good word for everybody (she says she loves everybody). This girl loves horses, and her favorite pastime is riding. Know who it is? Why sure, it's "Fuzzy." This gal is Secretary of the Boots and Saddle Club, First Vice-President of the B. S. U., and a member of Y. W. C. A. and Y. W. A. Last year she was third Vice-President of the B. S. U. and President of the Tip and Run Club. We wonder what would happen if "Fuzzy" couldn't wear blue jeans.

MARGARET HARLAN—"Down by the O-hi-o!"—that must be—it is—Margaret Harlan! Margaret happens to be quite versatile for she is athletic and domestic at the same time. This is proved by being Vice-President of the Boots and Saddle Club, a member of the Home Economics Club, Seven-Up Club, Ohio Club, and typist for the Cauldron. Margaret is efficient and loyal to her responsibilities as a V. I. Senior, and she will always be remembered for it. Keep the same smile, Margaret, and you'll always find your way.

ANNE HAWTHORNE—One of our dramatic majors, and one of the best we might add. Ann is a wonderful girl from that nice city, Richmond. And to prove that statement about one of the best dramatic majors, she's President of the Curry Club, a member of Junior Orchesis, Club Editor of the Cauldron, Vice-President of the Old Dominion Club, and a member of Delta Psi Omega and INTERMONT Staff. Anne's personality wouldn't be complete, if she weren't arguing with someone or talking about Richmond. Anne, here's hoping you'll always have "lots of room!"

ANNE HENDERSON—"Sho 'nuff, gal—you were out on first base" is a familiar phrase from our "Most Athletic" Senior. Anne stands out on a softball field, as she does when she's busy at Modern Dance. Her smile is one of those rare ones, for when she smiles her whole face lights up. Anne has done a good job as President of the Athletic Association, Secretary of the Y. W. A., and Sports Editor of the INTERMONT. She's a wonderful gal and a wonderful dancer as her membership in Junior Orchesis proves. Anne, thank you for being "one of us." It will be hard to find another like you.

THELA LYNNE HENRY—"Finny on the bath tub when we finish this game—won't you ever learn not to bid without a two and a half honor count?—someone open the window?" All this in one breath is not unusual coming from "Fi Fi," our attractive and energetic Cauldron editor. Her cheery "pep" talks when someone is blue, have won her a place in the hearts of all who know her. She is part of the INTERMONT Staff, Y. W. C. A., and Capitol Club. She gives us her best; so our best to you, "Fi Fi." You will go far!

* * *

MARY ANNE HERNDON—Here's to "Pee Wee," the diminutive Senior with the saucy smile and contagious laughter. She may be small, but she is quite capable of big things as her music shows very well. Even though "Pee Wee" can get mighty excited at times, her disposition is as sweet and even as any we have ever known. Her inexhaustable pep, vigor, and vitality have started her out in her many and varied activities as Vice-President of the Y. W. A., '46 and '47, and have carried her over to be Secretary of the B. S. U. and Treasurer of Phi Beta. Luck to you in your "Ambitions", "Pee Wee"!

FRANCES HOBSON—Auburn hair, brown eyes, a gay and charming personality, a friendly "Hey" to everyone she meets—that's Frances in a nutshell. She loves dancing—Bluefield style—but her greatest interest is W. and L. Frances's neatness and courtesy will push her up the ladder to success as a secretary, which she plans to be upon graduation. Frances is a member of the exclusive Red Heads Club and is an active member in the Tip and Run Club, the West Virginia Club, B. S. U., Y. W. A., and Y. W. C. A. We wish everyone could be lucky enough to rate such a secretary as we know Frances will be.

MARTHA HOOD—Just mention "Clem" to this little bombshell and you will always note a twinkle in her blue eyes and a broad smile on her face. "Clem" is her greatest love—the best all-American dog you've ever seen. Samme is always ready for a good time. Her own happiness is like the measles: when you come in contact with it, you are sure to get it too. Without Samme, the INTERMONT couldn't have had its snapshots, and the basketball team wouldn't have been managed so well. We're all sure of one thing, though: nice things do come in small packages.

JANICE HUFFARD—Tall, dark, and ever so good-looking—that's Janice. And much more, besides calm and serene, she gets things done and makes her mark on the campus in her quiet but effective way. Always strikingly dressed, Janice has that model's air which makes her stand out in any crowd. Her interests and ambitions run into the field of dramatics, in which we are sure she will be successful. She's a member of the Day Students Club, Curry Club, Y. W. C. A., and Y. W. A. From what we hear, she's also a very entertaining hostess. V. I. will hold so many pleasant memories, and you can be sure that Janice will be among the outstanding ones.

Cherita Jones—"Better late than never, Cherita"! Even though she did have a hard time getting to chapel, she didn't have a hard time making a hit with the girls on our campus. Did you ever take a good look at that beautiful black hair of hers? You'll never see her with one hair out of place and that's more than can be said for most of us. Cherita is one of those West Virginia gals, and in her eyes that's the only state in the U. S. During her two years at V. I., she has been a member of the Y. W. C. A., Y. W. A., and the West Virginia Club.

Joan Keyt—Quiet until you get to know her, then this little bombshell bursts and sends forth her laughing friendliness and zest. Joan has plenty of what it takes and even more. In fact, she's fun to have around at any time. This true friend has made herself quite at home on Intermont's campus. And V. I. certainly takes to her, too. It's with gals like Joan that our years in school have been made especially remarkable ones, full of learning; but, oh, so much fun. It's with a fond farewell that we have to take leave of a faithful trooper in the Class of '48.

Jo Anne Leighty—Just mention Connellsville, Pennsylvania, and this cute little trick will light up. Jo is always looking for a partner to dance to "I Can't Get Started With You." But she has gotten started in the hearts of many. Jo is a friend in the true sense of the word. Swimming is her greatest ambition, and some day she hopes to be an instructor—Miss Droste willing. In the meantime she is Sports Editor of the Cauldron and is typist on the Intermont Staff. She may be small, but it takes only a a little spark to set a big place on fire.

Louise Leslie—When you hear "Stormy Weather" being beaten out on a piano, you can be pretty sure it's "Ouija". On second Main her laughter and sparkling eyes are permanent fixtures. If you happen to pass when her roommate is leaving for town, you will hear Louise say, "Betty Jo, bring me a surprise from town." "Ouija" is popular at V. I., not only with her music but because she is a friend to everyone. She is Secretary of Phi Beta, a cabinet member of the Y. W. C. A., and the B. S. U. This "Most Talented" Senior has always given us the lift we needed when we ran into stormy weather.

Eunice Long—A tall striking blonde with a world of talent—that could be none other than Eunice. Her Southern charm has won her a host of admirers—both on and off stage. This true Thespian didn't take long to prove her ability; and in her first year of dramatics at V. I., she became a full-fledged member of Delta Psi Omega. With so much of her time taken by play rehearsals, Eunice still has time to look in on the Curry Club and Day Students Club. We're glad you're interested in dramatics, gal, cause we're interested in you.

Phyllis Long—Talk about nice girls! She's the nicest. Talk about sweet girls! She's the sweetest. She's our Phyl, and do we ever love her. Anything you want done, and done right, just ask Phyl—she's always willing to help. Honestly, she has such a sweet face, and she has the disposition to go with it. To show you how hard she works, she's Assistant Business Manager of the Intermont, and no one could have done a better job. She's also Secretary-Treasurer of Alpha Pi Epsilon, a member of the H_2O Club and the Modern Dance Club. Phyl, you have greatly enriched our stay at Intermont.

Virginia Lucy—Lucy is our nightingale; and when she sings, everyone listens. Not only does she have a beautiful voice, but she has grace and charm to match it. She has done so many nice things for V. I., that it would be hard for us ever to forget her. Many thanks for the swell jobs you have done as Portrait Editor of the Intermont, Vice-President of Phi Beta, Music Chairman of Y. W. A., and Vesper Choir director. We could listen to your songs all day, Lucy, but since the time for parting has come, we want to sing our songs of praise to you.

Doris Lugar—Charming and fun but busy and efficient—that's one of our rare combinations—Doris. As Seniors we recall the slim vivacious girl whose qualities were early marked for her important duties at V. I. Doris is never to be forgotten as the girl who gaily danced her way into our hearts and cast a spell with her acting. This same girl is our hard working Editor-in-Chief. As a member of Modern Dance Club, Curry Club, Junior Orchesis, Phi Theta Kappa, Secretary-Treasurer of Delta Psi Omega, Program Chairman of Y. W. A., and Cheerleader, the title of Torchbearer expresses the many things we leave unsaid. To know Doris is to know all loveliness.

Eleanor Lupton—If someone murmurs "Ohio is a wonderful state to live in," you won't find anyone who will agree more quickly than Eleanor. She is as loyal to her state as she is to all the other important things in her life. Eleanor spends most of her time "slaving over a hot stove," because her major is home economics. It is a far cry from slavery though, because this gal can really cook. She is Presbyterian representative for the Y. W. A., a member of the Home Economics Club, B. S. U., and the Art Club. It's been fun, Eleanor, thanks for being with us.

CAROL McCALLISTER—Her name suggests a song, and we wish to sing a very lovely one to Carol. Her beauty is a challenge to those around her. Her pedestal is high, and there are many at her feet. Kindness is one of her greatest assets, always putting others before herself. Honors belong to Carol, and those bestowed upon her while at V. I. include President of West Virginia Club, Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, President of Methodist group of Y. W. A., President of Tumbling Club, and Senior Editor of INTERMONT. Carol, knowing you has been loving you—may your future repay you all that you deserve.

PEGGY McCLELLAN—Who on the campus does not know Peggy McClellan? One of our outstanding day students, she takes time from her many activities to make friends and be one to everyone—day student as well as boarding student. If anyone wants a job well done she calls on Peg. Her abilities and interests were well applied in her jobs as Second Vice-President of the Y. W. C. A., a member of the Day Students Club, and the INTERMONT Staff. All our best wishes go with Peg as she leaves V. I. for her cheerfulness will linger in our memories for many years.

JOANNA McCLUNG—Harlan County, Kentucky, couldn't be so bloody, could it, to produce a sweet little girl like Joanna? If you are looking for a sincere, natural person with a heart of gold—she's your gal! An interest in people and a willingness to help others are admirable traits in anybody, but they are outstanding in "Jo." She is conscientious about everything she does whether it be math, Spanish, or making some "delicious coffee." She is a member of the Kentucky Club, Y. W. A., Y. W. C. A., and B. S. U. It's girls like you, Jo, that make us know the true meaning of the word "friend."

Joanna Maiden—"Joanna, I hate to ask you again, but could you possibly explain this English, math, or chemistry to me?" And what does our "Most Intellectual" Senior Say? "Uh-huh!" Her patient guidance has helped many of us across the rough places, and her ever-bubbling laughter is a joy to second Main. Joanna's varied talents hail her as Treasurer of Y. W. A., Secretary of Phi Theta Kappa, Assistant Secretary of Student Government, and winner of the Science award. Her ambition is to be a medical missionary. She is such a special person that we're sure of her success in the largest measure.

Janet Miller—This little girl with the dancing brown eyes shows grace and poise in every quiet movement she makes. She may be small, but when she smiles the world smiles with her. We have to stop in amazement every time we hear how much our "little Janet" does. A leader in many fields, she helps others become interested, too. Besides being Copy Editor of the Intermont, she is President of Alpha Pi Epsilon, Treasurer of the Y. W. C. A., member of Ohio Club, Y. W. A., Secretary to Mrs. Crockett, and past Secretary of Student Council. Some may call her "Jem," but our name for her is "Gem."

☆

Joan Haynes Miller—With the start Joan has, we would say she will easily attain her goal of becoming a biology or math teacher. Her reputation of constant perseverance has brought her many jobs, for there is a little bit of Joan in everything on campus, including Program Chairman of Y. W. C. A., Cabinet Officer of B. S. U., Vice-President of Phi Theta Kappa, a member of the orchestra, Student Government, West Virginia Club, and Y. W. A. Busy? Yes, but Joan is still a girl who is fun-loving and happy. Nancilyn is Business Manager of the Intermont, President of the Old Dominion Club, Social Chairman of the Y. W. C. A., a member of the Modern Dance Club, Art Club, Boots and Saddle Club, and the Cauldron Staff—just to mention a few. Our vote says versatile, popular, and charming. Keep it up, Nancilyn; we're proud of you.

☆

Joyce Nave—This petite gal with such a vivacious personality is well known, for she is one of our favorite "Hut" members. She is a strong supporter of the Day Students Club, and you'll always find her busily engaged in some activity. Valued as a real friend, Joyce leaves an unforgettable impression upon us. Her quick smile and true friendship bring back fond memories. A ready helper at all times, Joyce can be depended upon to do a job in a hurry and do it right. We know the business world will be glad to have a girl with her abilities.

Ann Neblett—The girl with the winning smile—that's Ann. No one has more common sense than she, which doubtlessly accounts for her marvelous ability to get things done. She always has her lessons prepared, and she seems to reach this happy state with the least apparent effort. Then, too, she is always ready for a good time. Ann belongs to the Nostrae Filiae Club, is Treasurer of Phi Theta Kappa, and takes an active part in the Day Students Club. The same, day in and day out; Ann is always ready to help everyone. Do you wonder that we all love her!

Mary Anna Parker—No one asks how she received the nickname "Bambi," those huge eyes are explanation enough. "Bambi" is proud of her home state, and the Kentucky Club boasts her as its Vice-President. Art Editor of the 1948 Intermont, dining room hostess, a member of the Tip and Run Club, a valuable cabinet member of the Y. W. C. A., and an essential alto in the Glee Club, this gal of many talents is known and loved by all. Tall, slender, charming "Bambi"—she seems too good to be true. Thank you, "Bambi," for coming to V. I. and brightening our lives for two memorable years.

Marie Parrish—"What show shall we be seeing today?" is a question frequently heard on the halls of second Main, for Marie is an avid movie fan. She's the gal with the dark brown hair and deep blue eyes, who manages to keep us in a constant state of mirth with her clever imitations and ready witticisms. Hailing from the nation's capitol, she's forever talking about her glorious Washington—but that's only natural—she's President of the Capitol Club, as well as a member of the Y. W. A. and Y. W. C. A. Keep smiling, Marie, and the world will always smile with you.

Marion Powers—A true "Tar Heel," Marion will tell you there's no place like Carolina—North—that is! She plans to make her address Chapel Hill next year where we can be sure she'll have the situation well in hand. We hear via the grapevine that a certain guy named Bill can cause her eyes to light up, and we suspect he's the reason she's so eager to get to the post office. She is Vice-President of Delta Psi Omega, a member of the Y. W. C. A., Curry Club, and the North Carolina Club. We hope to hear of you in the North Carolina Playmakers, Marion.

Elizabeth Prater—"Say, Prater, what's that?" "Oh, just a cup-cake from Peter Pan." And if it isn't a cup-cake, it's a doughnut! "Eat and be happy" is a pretty good motto. Elizabeth has certainly earned a place for herself in the hearts of the day students by making everyone happy. Her sparkling eyes and pleasant manner have cheered up many a dreary morning for us. She's going to be a secretary and she'll make a mighty pretty and efficient one. Just remember, Elizabeth—V. I. girls don't sit on the boss's knee.

☆

Peggy Lou Presley—One of the most active members of the Day Students Club, Peggy has certainly made her contribution to V. I. She is the girl who is always thoughtful of others and ever ready to be helpful. "The Hut" will never be the same without her smile and cheery laughter. Peg has made more friends on the 'ole campus than we'll try to count. With her winning personality and willingness to work, we know Peg will be at the top in any work she may choose. Keep laughing, gal! We love it.

Sarah Pritchett—"Hey 'Pritch' are ya going to Sunday School?" And she always answers back with that slow, shy, smile. That's our sweet, lovable "Pritch." She's everybody's favorite! If something goes wrong, she just takes it on the chin—her disposition never changes. She's as dependable as the day is long; she'd have to be to hold these offices: Advertising Manager of the Intermont, President of the North Carolina Club, Treasurer of the Boots and Saddle Club, Assistant Social Chairman of the Y. W. A., and a first semester member of Student Council. Good sportsmanship, dependability, and a sunny disposition just go with the name of Sarah Pritchett.

Charlene Ramsey—Known for her silent efficiency, calm disposition, and pleasant nature, Charlene has proven herself a steadfast and loyal comrade who is worthy of the term "friend." We find in her a willingness to cooperate and a desire to please others. Although "Charlee" has been with us for only one year, we feel that she has added a lot to our Senior Class. Charlene lends her talents wholeheartedly to her activities which include the B. S. U., Y. W. A. and Y. W. C. A. She has a quiet love for music, and interest and helpfulness such as hers will always be welcome everywhere. May you always remember us, "Charlee," we can't forget you!

☆

Jo Ann Rhodes—Webster says an essential is what you cannot do without. V. I. says an essential is Jo Ann Rhodes. Busy as a bee, she buzzes from one place to another with never a dull moment. These past two years she has devoted her interest to Student Council, and to being a member of B. S. U., International Relations Club, Y. W. A., and H_2O Club. She was our Harvest Queen for this fall, and is the Group Editor of the Intermont. Her radiant personality makes her our "Most Charming" Senior. We know she will always keep her place among everyone's list of "essentials".

Jo Carroll Richardson—Witty, tall, athletic, and from Texas. Ah, that last one gave it away—"Tex," of course, complete with drawl and easy-going air. A lover of sports, a whiz in basketball, and a classy dresser—these are a few characteristics of "Tex." To help pass the time, "Tex" is a member of the Athletic Association, Boots and Saddle Club, Copy Staff of the Intermont, Art Club, Seven-Up Club, and Texan Club—a busy gal—huh? If all Texans are like our sample, we think it must be a pretty wonderful place. ("Tex" says, "it sure is").

BESSIE SALMONS—"Get in your rooms," is not spoken harshly, but with a big grin by our Bessie. She has a heart large enough to carry the troubles and joys of all second Main. She has been one of the best Student Government members we could have had. "Bess" came unknown to us from Back Bay (ask her about Back Bay, for she loves to talk about home where she has so much fun), but now we know her! Honestly, we couldn't have made it without you, Bessie. She has been a part of the Y. W. A., Y. W. C. A., B. S. U., Seven-Up Club, Old Dominion Club, and INTERMONT Staff. Bessie you've been sunshine in our lives.

MARJORIE SCHEERER—The sincerest of the sincere is Marjorie. Possessing parallel qualities of sincerity and wit you will find her in one moment singing "I Am Anatole of Paris," and in the next quoting to you the wisdom of "The Prophet." Marge is a scholar and an enthusiast of drama with intent effort toward both, but she always finds time for a friendly visit, a joke, and a kindness of any sort. What time she has left, Marge devotes to being a member of Delta Psi Omega, Student Government, Photographic Editor of the Cauldron, Y. W. A., Y. W. C. A., Pennsylvania Club, and the Curry Club.

NANCY SHEFFIELD—From that distant land, New Jersey, comes our gal, Sheffield—a Yankee personified. She's brought lots of vim, vigor, and vitality to V. I.'s campus. If you're still wondering about her, we can tell you that she's quite fond of music and athletics—an unusual combination, but an interesting one. A dependable hard worker, with the famous wit that can make the longest face beam. Nancy does well her numerous jobs which include being Vice-President of the Click Club, Fire Warden, Y. W. C. A. Secretary, a member of the Athletic Association, the 7-Up Club, and the New Jersey Club. Thanks for all you've given us!

Audrey Jean Shepherd—Have you heard her sing? We mean Audrey Shepherd, of course! She's the girl with the coloratura voice that sounds so wonderful. She's naturally very interested and participates in most of the musical activities around the campus. She is Historian and Reporter of Phi Beta Fraternity, a member of Glee Club, the Old Dominion Club, and Nostrae Filiae. Audrey is one of our quiet people, that is, when she's not singing! But there is a greeting smile when you pass her and always a friendly word or two. We can't leave Jack out of this—be good to him!

Sarah Shockley—"Oh, my soul and body"—this is a favorite expression of Sarah's. Here is a "Georgia Cracker" who has a charming little "Hey, thair" for everybody. The drawl is true Georgian style. She is one of the authentic southern belles we have all heard about. Sarah says she can sing some, but we disagree with the "some," for her alto voice is welcome everywhere. The Glee Club seems to agree, for Sarah is its President. She is also a member of the Y. W. C. A., Y. W. A., B. S. U., the Georgia-Alabama Club, and INTERMONT Staff. You have added spice to our years here, Sarah.

Betty Simms—Take big brown eyes that light up with a mischievous gleam which seems to say, "Beware, I'm in the mood for fun," a friendly smile, an interested attitude, lush "new-lookish" clothes worn with an air of charm and grace, plus an ardent interest in bridge—add them up and you have "Simmie." A Home Economics Club member, Betty entertains gracefully at many of the functions of that department. She is also a member of the Portrait Staff of the INTERMONT. Loads of happiness to you, Betty. BETTY JUNE SIX—The soft melodious strains of "Saltpork, West Virginia," come floating down the hall. That could only be Six, who claims Bluefield as her second home. Her striking looks and stylish clothes make everybody's head turn when she passes. A fiend for shoes and good food and having a smile for everyone, Six will long be remembered by the many of us who are fortunate enough to call her our special friend. A member of the Y. W. C. A., Y. W. A., and the Tip and Run Club, she still finds time for her studies in Secretarial Science. We envy those lucky people who will enjoy her friendship in the future.

REBECCA SPAHR—Becky is one girl many will not forget. Her friendly disposition and helpfulness have meant a lot to us in the bright days as well as the gloomy ones. Her infectious laughter can always be heard in the Day Students' Hut or the Home Economics Lab, two of her favorite haunts. In spite of all the fun she has, Becky sometimes manages to study a little and do all the little thoughtful things which have endeared her to us. She is a member of the Day Students Club, Home Economics Club, Y. W. C. A., and Y. W. A. Becky, V. I. won't be the same without you.

Jackie Sprinkle—Recipe: dark hair, sparkling eyes, gay laugh, and a glowing personality. Result: one grand, all-round girl. But no, that's not all, she is a worker, too. If it's not a birthday dinner she's working on, it must be something else for the Y. W. C. A., whose roll she honors with the title of first Vice-President. A gracious dining room hostess, an active member of the Tennessee and Home Economics Clubs, Jackie is never too busy for that special job of being friendly. Thanks for being a ray of happiness, we won't forget you!

Betty Jo Sutton—"What ya doin'? Have you seen my hammer? Say, do you have anything to eat?" These are the usual opening remarks of a welcome visit from Betty Jo. One of the members of that celebrated "Bring-me-back-a-present-from-town" club, she may often be found marveling over some new novelty. Of course, she takes time out for shorthand and filing, as well as her favorite hobby—photography. Betty Jo has graced the rolls of the Y. W. C. A., Y. W. A., Seven-Up, and Click Clubs. Her heart of gold and interest in others have made her irreplaceable on second Main.

Ellen Anne Tait—This fair damsel with the long raven tresses might have just stepped from Vogue, so up to the minute is she in fashion. However, that's not the only way Ellen Anne stands out. She is Circulation Manager and Exchange Editor of the Cauldron, a member of the Advertising Staff of the Intermont, Boots and Saddle Club, New York Club, Y. W. A., Y. W. C. A., and B. S. U. Ellen Anne is up to the minute in ideas, too, and we'll wager that some day she'll achieve her high goals. Meanwhile, she plans to "see the world." The world will see Ellen Anne, too.

EMILY TAYLOR—"T-e-double n-e-double s-double e; knit two, purl two;" sings Emily thinking of home as she busily knits another sweater for her collection. She is as sweet and thoughtful as they come, and she is always chuckling over something or other. Emily's private crystal ball tells us she plans to be a laboratory technician, and she has had good practice along this line as student lab assistant in bacteriology. Emily was so efficient that the nice salesman thought she was the teacher. Her warm brown eyes may be found sparkling at a meeting of the Tennessee Club, Y. W. A., or Y. W. C. A.

☆

PEGGY THOMAS—Peggy is one good all-round college gal. She'll help you do anything from picking posies to writing a 1,000-word theme! Usually she will always greet you with a "What's that color called you have on?" That's because she's Fashion Editor for the Cauldron. Besides this, she's on the INTERMONT Staff, Tip and Run Club, Red Heads Club, Glee Club, Tennessee Club, Boots and Saddle Club, Art Club, and she is Secretary of the Debate Club. Nice going, Peggy! And, by the way, if any of you are ever in Johnson City, just drop in at the Thomas'—the door is always open.

JEAN TUCKER—Um-m-m, look at that luscious red head, Jean Tucker. Jean is from Canton, North Carolina—just ask her and watch her beam. Around the campus you will always see her smiling and giving a friendly North Carolina "hello." And if you start a conversation with her, sooner or later, she'll come out with "Lawd yes." She's the gal who is President of the Red Heads Club, a typist for the Cauldron, a member of the Portrait Staff of the INTERMONT, and the North Carolina Club. It's been grand knowing you, Jean, and you can be sure that we'll really miss you next year.

Barbara Underwood—The laughing face and gay spirit from Ohio—Cleveland, that is—of course, we mean Underwood. She's always in on the fun and keeps third Main happy! She well deserves her title of President of the Ohio Club, having let us know upon her arrival that she belongs to that "exclusive" (?) clan known as "Yankees." She's softball manager in the Athletic Association, and a member of the Swimming, Tumbling, and Boots and Saddle Clubs. Now if you're ever feeling blue and think the world owes a laugh to you, you'll get it, and more in 314 Main.

Class

Margarita Valdes—A flash of red hair and a radiant smile accompany this girl, whose conversation runs a mile a minute with delightful accents. It's invigorating to talk to her, ambition should be her middle name! Coming to us from Cuba, Margarita has made herself known in the hearts and halls of V. I. She is a member of the Y. W. A., Y. W. C. A., and, of course, the Red Heads Club, and Margarita is the very person to be President of the "Little U. N. O." Club. Keep working for that degree as Doctor of Philosophy, for you have proven to us that you can do anything you want to, Margarita.

Martina Wadewitz—And then there's "Tina" Wadewitz. Why, there's always "Tina," for we just couldn't do without her. In her droll way and with her dry humor, "Tina" is one of the friendliest and most sincere persons you could hope to find. She is busy, but she manages to leave a few free hours for friendly little chats or for helping somebody over a rough spot in her German or biology. A favorite in Hodges, "Tina" is President of her hall, and she is also a member of Y. W. A., Y. W. C. A., B. S. U., and Vice-President of the Art Club.

Jewel Walker—Sweet, thoughtful, always willing to help others, and a wonderful Song Leader! That, and more, is Jewel Walker. She loves music, and it seems to be a part of her—even her smile has music in it! One of the most outstanding girls at V. I., she has been President of the B. S. U. for two years, President of the Junior Class in High School, President of the Florida Club, a member of Phi Beta, Glee Club, Tip and Run Club, a Torchbearer in 1947 and 1948, and Song Leader for four years. Jewel, as "Most Versatile" Senior, the world will always be yours!

Mary Walker—Any time of day you drop into the library, Mary is sure to be there to make your trip pleasant with her quiet smile and warm personality. She's one of those Bristol gals who ranks so high in knowing how to get things done well and quickly, too. She can send your troubles flying in her calm, sweet way; so if you are ever blue, look her up! Her activities include membership in the Y. W. C. A., Y. W. A., and Day Students Club. Nice to work with, and nice to be with, Mary has filled an important place in the Parade of Seniors of '48.

Ruth Warren—Hear that alto voice? That's Ruth Warren from Cleveland Heights, Ohio. Her ambition is to teach music in an elementary school. So with an interest in music, there is always Phi Beta for those who are really good, and Ruth is. She was Treasurer of the Glee Club, President and Vice-President of the Home Economics Club, a member of the Ohio, Seven-Up, Click, and Boots and Saddle Clubs. And Ruth is the same girl we met during those first weeks when we were all frightened Juniors. So long, Ruth, don't forget us!

Dorris Mae Watson—Pennsylvania? Nice state! Beaver? Swell place! Dorris Watson? Wonderful girl! Why, that's our President of Student Government. The Science Club, Phi Theta Kappa, Y. W. C. A., Y. W. A., B. S. U., and Pennsylvania Club all had Dorris Watson's membership and interest. She has everything that will make a lovely woman; brains and a sweet, inner beauty. Being the President of Student Government was no easy job. Dorris carried a big responsibility with a lot of hard work in it, but she's always "Johnny"-on-the-spot. We are proud to claim her as a '48 Torchbearer. Dorris, to you we say, "A job well done."

Charmian Werly—Rochester, New York, sent us one of her favorite daughters when "Charmie" came to V. I. It was our good fortune, for she is one of the sweetest girls who ever decorated a classroom. We know her by her shining curly hair, bright smile, and chewing gum. Everyone who meets her fondly calls her "Charmie." This is one nickname that really fits. Hodges Hall wouldn't be complete without her voice mingled with the rest in a big "bull session." She is a member of the Boots and Saddle Club, Art Club, Y. W. A., and Y. W. C. A. Here's to a Northerner with Southern charm!

Mildred Westall—Need any help? Just call for Millie and cease your worries. In the hurry and flurry of our two years she has been one of those rare people who are like a calm island in a stormy sea. Millie came to us from North Carolina which probably accounts for that sunny disposition, that warming smile, and that wonderful alto voice! She participated in many class groups and other activities on campus, being a member of Y. W. C. A., Y. W. A., B. S. U., and the North Carolina Club. Millie, keep on laughing, dancing, and singing, we have loved it and you.

VELMA WILBURN—A heart of gold, dependability, a warm personality, and those gorgeous brown eyes are the ribbons that tie up a valuable parcel stamped "Vicki." She's one of the friendliest little gals at V. I. and always ready to do her share, whatever the job may be. Her main interest is in the field of art, but during her two years at V. I., she has also found time for membership in the Boots and Saddle Club, Tip and Run Club, Roanoke Club, Y. W. C. A., Y. W. A., and is one of the Assistants to the Art Editor of the INTERMONT. Farewell to a Senior with the true spirit of V. I.!

☆

DONNA WILLIAMS—"Wait until I put on the finishing touches," and Donna isn't speaking of make-up! She is referring to that painting she is retouching. This tall brunette is well known in the art department; and from what we have seen, she really has what it takes. We understand that Donna is also interested in Scout work. In other words, she's quite a busy gal. Donna is a member of the Day Students Club, Art Club and Y. W. C. A. Her sparkling personality and charming smile make this all-round talented Senior an outstanding figure in "The Hut" —as well as all over the campus.

JANE WOMACK—"Oh, how I hate to get up in the morning", is definitely the theme song of our fun-loving "Bush". The combination of wit, beauty, charm, and pure devilment, make up our "Wittiest" Senior. You can bet there's always plenty of fun when she's around. Indispensable on the basketball court, she has been on the varsity team for two years. Her interest in the Y. W. A., Y. W. C. A., Seven-Up Club, and Secretary-Treasurer of the North Carolina Club, keep her well occupied but happy. Here's to you, Bush, we wouldn't have missed knowing and loving you for anything.

Bettie Wysor—"Hey, Wysor, why don't you help me carry this"? And Wysor, without another word, lends a helping hand. Her interests go along with music and all the arts. She likes to write, too. In her two years at V. I., she has been Junior Editor of the INTERMONT, Program Chairman of the Debate Club, Devotional Chairman of Y. W. A., a member of the Advertising Staff of the INTERMONT, Assistant Feature Editor of the Cauldron, Publicity Manager of the Curry Club, Vice-President of the International Relations Club, a member of the Ohio Club, and Delta Psi Omega. She is a great gal, and we know she'll accomplish what she goes after.

Marjorie Ziehl—With intelligence, wit, and a charm that really gets under your skin, Margie is one of our most capable Seniors. She is one of those girls who goes quietly about doing a good job in all she undertakes. Without a doubt, Margie's main interest, hobby, and driving force is music, and why not? With the voice she has, her future as a teacher of music theory and harmony seems quite fitting to us. Margie is President of Phi Beta, Vice-President of Nostrae Filiae, International Relations, Chairman of Y. W. C. A., and a member of the Copy Staff of the INTERMONT. Keep climbing, Margie!

Scared to death but smiling like sunbeams, we little Juniors trudged into the hallowed halls of Intermont in September of '46; and with eager anticipation settled down for our first year of college life. It didn't take us very long to fall in line, and soon "Fuzzy" Graham was in the front hall selling chapel seats. She wasn't the only person all over the campus for "Piggy" Wells, our class president, was leading the lost little girls from one place to another. With Bettie Barnhill as vice-president, Nan Richardson scribbling shorthand notes, and Sally Droste straightening out money matters, we seized every opportunity to become a part of Intermont. Miss Droste, our sponsor for two years, has been the inspiration for our class; and with her help, we have achieved unforgettable attainments.

So many things happened in such rapid succession that we "Lowly Juniors" became intoxicated with happiness and awe. First the "Little Pal Party" disclosed much hidden talent including our song bird Virginia Lucy and our "kitten-on-the-keys" Louise Leslie. After food, fun, and more food at the Kiwanis outing, we began to concentrate on more serious things like the Song Contest. With a beautiful song, but victory just above our reach, we were more determined than ever to see "Senior Class '48" on the plaque. During the Junior-Senior basketball game, Ann Bingham cheered the high spirited Junior class to a victory that proved the possessor of the effigy was not destined to win. But spirit alone did not win the game for our star players Margaret Eskew, "Tex" Richardson, Jane Womack, and "Vicki" Wilburn were really putting their best foot forward. The Junior-Senior banquet with the theme of "April Showers" was true to the tradition the Junior Class had built for themselves.

When we struggled back in September, loaded with bags, boxes, and books, June Crockett and Bettie Boyd, the Presidents of our Y. W. C.A. and Y. W. A., were on hand to greet us and open wide the doors to the new girls. With Jane Edmonds, president; Bettie Barnhill, vice-president; Marian Burke, secretary; and Marjorie Black, treasurer; we started and finished another wonderful episode in our lives. There are many memories to treasure, and among them is the Harvest Carnival with Jo Ann Rhodes as queen and a dream come true when Mr. Snodgrass handed Jewel Walker the plaque for the Senior victory in the Song Contest. Then that wonderful party afterwards—can we ever forget? We weren't kidding ourselves with the title of "Mighty Seniors."

We've had our ups and downs, but Dorris Watson, Student Government president, has really succeeded in keeping us from becoming little J. D.'s. With the coming of the Junior-Senior basketball game and the banquet, it really began to hit home what a wonderful Junior Class we had with us. It suddenly dawned that our days were numbered with them, and soon all this would only be memories, but memories that every Senior will never forget.

Leading the figure at the Annual Dance was our wonderful editor, Doris Lugar; business manager, Nancilyn Miller; and advertising manager, Sarah Pritchett; all clad in gowns of white never looking lovelier. Then there's the best Cauldron ever, made possible by that vivacious gal—Thela Henry. As Junior Orchesis members, Anne Henderson and Anne Hawthorne have danced into all of our hearts to stay. And to brighten any day, one only had to look up Edith Bishop, Samme Hood, or Helen Glazebrook.

As May '48 drew near and brought with it more enchantment, our little hearts filled to the brim with the satisfaction of a job well done. Now it's over, the Senior Breakfast, Torchlight Service, May Day, and our caps and gowns are folded and put back into boxes. We sing our songs of praise to a wonderful class made up of wonderful girls. Here's to the Class of '48.

Junior Page

Come on, Juniors, grab a crystal ball and let's peer into the past instead of the future. The history of the Junior class is the past to look for. Can you see way back into September?

We all crammed into the chapel for one of those junior meetings. Although that was in the days before our "Juniors! Stand and sing _ _ _" was written, we were making plenty of noise without it. Teddy Nelson, perched on the piano bench in her favorite position, kept us quiet long enough to tell us about the Song Contest. Miss Keezel and Bea Minor chimed in to say that it was pretty important. It was! We didn't carry off the honors that night; instead, we gained a class spirit which helped to make this year a memorable one for all of us.

It wasn't long until Libby Cook, Jo Tonis, and Thack were teaching us yells for the coming hockey games. Cheers went up for Helen Torrence and Blaky who had the knack of being in the right place at the right time, and Phyllis Warren proved to be as lively on the hockey field as she is every place else.

Days fairly whizzed by after that. Even before we could blink one well-turned eyelash, Joan Barnard was singing "Silent Night." Janet Jolliffe and Charlotte Millsaps quickly glanced at their calendars, marked off another day, and began to make plans. Joan Erhart and Toddy Long packed their Phi Beta invitations; Flo Rogers, Mimi Townsend, and Dee Dee Graham set out for their lands of sunshine; and the rest of us went home dreaming of a wonderful white Christmas.

Too soon, it seemed, we came back from the holidays, full of turkey and home-sickness. After listening a million times to what our roommates did on New Year's Eve, we finally settled down to work again. Jean de Jarnette and Maggie Jacobs spent most of their time in the dance studio. Betty Sue Dale, Carolyn Wilcox, and Doris Meseroll discussed the reasons they could never quite finish a chemistry experiment before dinner; and Mary B. Chandler dropped in to talk to Connie Ferrell about History. Pat Gerdts and Dawn Drake, pouring over Cauldron assignments, stopped a minute to wave good-bye to Mary Lee Taylor who was heading for town to see "The Jolson Story" again. Betty Canipe and Lulu Swanson were very busy with a basketball.

When the big day of the Junior-Senior game blew in, we left everything and waded out into the snow to play "Hide-and-go-seek" with the Seniors. We forgot our aching backs and cold cold noses when we triumphantly carried the effigy into the gym. After the game—well, none of us was calm enough to think at all especially Frankie Fowler who was in a daze for weeks.

There was no lull after this big event, because Teddy had already started to work on an idea. As a result, lots of us began to spend most of our time in the gym or chapel. Things were happening outside too; and just to prove that spring had come at last, Mary Betty Morrison and Jo Nicholls threw away their equitation notes and started for the stables once more. Then came the minstrel to usher in the new season with style. We laughed until we cried at Mary Lawrence Walker, Elaine Sheaffer, and all the rest; then we settled back to listen to Dot McDowell and Eileen Hillert. It was one of those nights we wish we could live over again.

The days before the Junior-Senior banquet were one mad rush. However, we all found some way to relax for a minute or two. Mich practiced reveille on her trombone; Murphy locked herself in her room and turned on the phonograph full blast. In fact, the only girls stirring about were the Betty Browns who were busily exchanging mail and laundry.

All these things, and the many other events of the year gave us lots to remember. And now, we can put the old crystal ball back on the shelf because these memories will remain with us always.

PREPARATORY

MAE JANE ABNER, Pueblo, Colorado—Don't let her quiet, unassuming manner fool you—Jane's the rare combination of thoughtful seriousness and fun loving humor that makes a wonderful girl.

MARGIE ADELSTEIN, Shaker Heights, Ohio—An infectious giggle, a sharp sense of humor and a mischievous personality have won a flock of friends for Margie, our promising horsewoman.

ANN ALLGAIER, Potsdam, New York—She's the girl with the short hair and Ingrid Bergman look with an adorable personality. Ann, it's been such fun knowing you.

ANN AULL, Clemson, South Carolina—Warm friendly eyes, a refreshing smile, and more than a little intelligence—an accurate description of Ann. The High School is proud to claim her.

MARY JO BALDWIN, Lenoir City, Tennessee—An actress, dancer, cheerleader—versatile? Yes! This darling redhead is a worker, too. High School Editor of the Intermont. She is truly a Torchbearer.

MARY MARGARET BOGARTH, Norfolk, Virginia—Fun loving "Pat" has a keen mind of unusual depth. A gay sophisticate with a love for the unique, she's made a big hit.

BARBARA BROOKS, Pineville, Kentucky—Sweet, quiet but so likable is Barbara. Her character is reflected in her beautiful brown eyes. It's been so nice knowing you, Barbara.

SYLVIA CASH, Buffalo, New York—Reliable, helpful, and quiet are all admirable qualities in Sylvia. Interested in horses and acting, our wish is that she may further her interests.

DELORES DEAK, New Brunswick, New Jersey—The petite, versatile, vivacious, song leader of the High School is none other than "Deak". Good luck, little one. You will go far.

YVONNE DE LAWDER, Tiquisate, Guatemala—You always find Yvonne ready with a friendly greeting. She has a heart of gold and is always willing to lend a helping hand.

SENIORS

SHELA DUBY, Stratford, Texas—A sports fiend with real talent and ability. Shela's gay laughter and winning personality have endeared her to us. An ambitious gal who'll go far.

PATRICIA EDWINS, Gulfport, Mississippi—Vivid, vivacious, and versatile, Pat has made a host of friends at V. I. Her startling witticisms, gay laughter and chatter can capture anyone's heart.

MARY JANE EIDSON, Mocksville, North Carolina—Bang! Cyclone? Atomic bomb? No! M. J. charged with energy, wit, and personality plus. She's brightened the past three years here for all who know her.

MARY EPLING, Charleston, West Virginia—Mary is a short, sweet, blonde with a quiet nature and a dry sense of humor. Her calmness makes her efficient in all that she does.

ELEANORE EVERHARD, New Philadelphia, Ohio—A quiet and enchanting manner, sincere understanding, fun-loving—"Ellie." Her good sportsmanship is truly in keeping with the ideals at V. I.

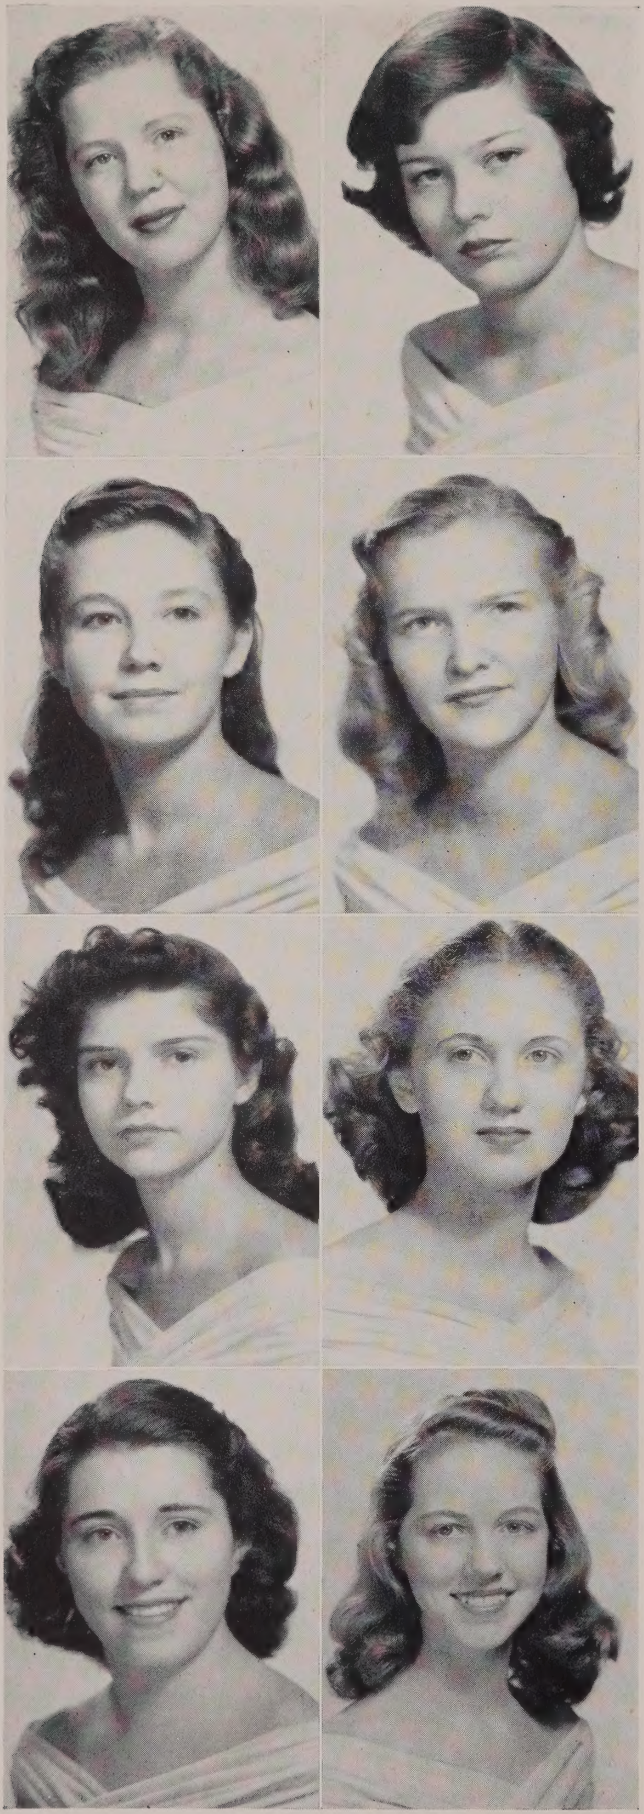
PHYLLIS FARMER, Richmond, Virginia—A toast to our class president "Butch." Equally at home on the dance floor or athletic field, she's a picture of fun, pep, and vitality.

MARY ANN FLOWERS, Columbus, Georgia—Inquisitive, dry wit and a genial friend to all is Mary Ann. A promising artist and swimmer who is fun in anybody's language.

HELDA GABRIEL, Abingdon, Virginia—Kindly, thoughtful Hilda—what would we do without her help in German. She doesn't talk much but when she does everybody listens.

EDITH HOO, Honolulu, Hawaii—A small bundle of charm and a willing worker is Edith, whose soothing voice and dimpled grin have made her a place in our hearts.

SHIRLEY HORNE, Bayard, Florida—Friendly, entertaining and cheerful is a very attractive blonde. It's been nice to have known and loved you this year, Shirley.



PREPARATORY

MARTHA HURLOCKER, Albermarle, North Carolina—Good natured, interesting, gracious, and talented Martha. She adores people and music, and she's the kind of person it will be hard to forget.

JOAN JENNINGS, Jefferson City, Tennessee—A versatile little girl with a passion for horses is Joan. The quiet type—fun, friendly, good natured and sweet—that's Jo.

ETTIE JEANNE JOHNSON, Corrente Piaui, Brazil—Quiet quality of perseverence accompanied by a charming manner. A girl who is both accomplished and admired. Sweet, neat, and always ready to help.

MARTHA KANE, Southbury, Connecticut—"Marty" is always in a good humor. That must have something to do with her popularity. Friendliness such as hers will be welcome anywhere.

JACKIE LAMP, Chicago, Illinois—Our lady of luscious looks and locks so often shows a sparkling laugh that matches those beautiful brown eyes. Tiny, talkative, and terrific—that's Jackie.

ERNESTINE LANGRALL, Bivalve, Maryland—"Tina" is that gal with laughing eyes. Her air of gaiety and friendliness, adoring smile, and easy-going manner have made her TOPS.

JANE McJUNKINS, Badin, North Carolina—Introducing Jane who is a treasure of friendliness, sincerity, and efficiency. Our wish is for you to obtain the happiness you so richly deserve.

EARLLYN MORRISON, Orlando, Florida—Her sincere personality, serene disposition, poised manner, and winning smile have endeared Earllyn to us all. Her dependability and loyalty will take her far.

SENIORS

ANN ORWILER, Nelsonville, Ohio—Behold, a girl of friendliness, tact, and sympathetic understanding, whose shy, appealing disposition, winsome smile, and generosity make people happy wherever she goes.

MARJORIE RATCLIFFE, Falmouth, Virginia—Margie's slow southern drawl, expressive eyes, and cheery grin have stolen into our hearts and found a hiding place. They will always be there, Margie.

ELIZABETH ROLLINS, Pineville, Kentucky—Libby, our talented and enchanting dancer, bubbling with laughter and gaiety, has that wonderful ability to make the world seem brighter to others.

MARIE SLEAP, Palatka, Florida—Talent in music, dance, and many other things has placed "Sleapy" among the essentials of our class. To know her is a challenge towards perfection.

MARY B. SMALL, Elizabeth City, North Carolina—Popularity plus is hers, and who wouldn't be attracted to this "small" and charming Tar Heel with the curly brown hair and azure eyes?

MARGARET GAY SOMERS, Parksley, Virginia—Golden melodies pour forth from "Mar-Gay" one of the High School's most talented girls. With her cheerful smile and sunny disposition, she has brightened our days.

ELIZABETH VENABLE, Kilmarnock, Virginia—Presenting B. J.—the gal with the dark flashing eyes, refreshing smile, subtle wit and genuine friendliness. No wonder she has such a host of friends.

"Well, you see, it's like this .. .." "Butch Farmer", president of the Senior Class, draped herself over the nearest chair and began to wonder whether she was awake or if all this talk of graduation was only a dream. June Auer, Martha Kane, Jo Acton, and Jane Nicholls were sitting on the edge of the bed, and the rest of room was overflowing with laughing high school students.

Over in a corner, Janet Nix, Margie Adelstein, Jo Sawyer, and Shirley Horne mulled over the boy situation and rehashed all the latest gossip. Jenny Culbertson and Rita Fekas contributed this juicy tidbit...."Is M. J. really going blind or can't she tell the difference between eggs and butter?......I heard Mary B. Small turned Charles' picture to the wall again .... Sally Leavell doesn't take books to Latin class any more...... just cake......" Finally, after running out of things to say about boys, girls, and teachers, this group moved over to listen in on Joan Jennings' and Earllyn Morrison's "horsey" conversation. Libby Rollings and Anne Aull joined them just long enough to say they liked basketball much better.

Right in the middle of the floor, Jackie Lamp, Anne Allgaier, Ann Orwiler, and "Tine" Langrall were carrying on a bridge game, oblivious to all the people who stumbled over them.

Mary Jo Baldwin, "Butch" Farmer, and "Sleapy" were vainly trying to find room enough to practice a few dance techniques to liven up the party.

Suddenly a roar of laughter broke out around Patsy Edwins who was doing her favorite monkey imitation. Mar-Gay Somers and Jackie Cooper, rushing out to find a piano, ran into Shela Duby who was proudly displaying her brand new varsity basketball emblem.

Pat Bozarth and Mary Ann Flowers were laughing, remembering how funny everybody looked trying on the caps and gowns—especially Eleanore Everhard who was wearing Martha Hurlocker's by mistake. "Corky" Fisher and Jo Siner giggled when they thought of how B. J. Venable's knees shook when she walked across the stage to receive her diploma. Edith Hoo and Jane McJunkins agreed that it was the longest walk in the world.

Jean McIntyre cornered Barbara Brooks, Alcie Howard, and Marta York to show them a certain issue of Life magazine. We were just as tickled as she was when we saw it.

"Chip" Itzkovitz and Mae Jane Abner perked up when they saw Betty Vance and Margie Morgan come in from Trayer's loaded with hamburgers. Pat Harris and Heather Palmer helped throw them around, and soon we were all munching happily.

After finishing eating, we settled back to listen to Delores Deak who soon had us singing the high school pep song. This brought back memories of the Song Contest, and of the weeks we spent in preparation for that "big night." Mrs. Milne had helped to keep us together all the way; and all the girls had given their time, energy, and spirit. We learned a lot about singing but still more about each other. There are some things and some people we can never forget!

ACTIVITIES

The Student Council is our government. We know that man's very existence depends upon law and order, and therefore governments were established. Time and experience have shown us that democracy is the best form of government. The Student Council represents an excellent device through which a knowledge of democracy can be made meaningful, colorful, and vital, not only because it is based upon democratic principles and procedures; but, just as important, because its interests and activities are those of student life. Council members develop intelligent respect for authority, increasing self-direction, leadership, and co-operation.

As the oldest religious organization on the campus, the Y.W.C.A. seeks to unite the students in realizing a fuller and more creative life. To get the girls acquainted, it sponsors the "Little Pal" party on the first Saturday night of the school year. One of the big events of the year is the Harvest Carnival, the proceeds of which go to the Janie Hammit orphanage. The girls relax at informal Exam Week Teas, followed by the fun and fellowship of Peanut Week, which ends with a formal Valentine banquet. These are a few of the activities which prove inspirational and helpful in our striving toward finer living.

Y. W. A.

In its many varied activities, the Y.W.A. endeavors to put its purpose of binding girls in Christian service into effect. Emphasis is especially centered on the college student's place in world missions. Campus activities are planned far in advance to create a well-rounded schedule for each girl who enters Intermont. The first of these is the big campus picnic held with the intention of promoting acquaintances. Other high points in the college year sponsored by the Y.W.A. are Christmas Vespers and Mission Focus Week. The students are kept in close contact with the activities of their particular denomination through monthly meetings. Through the high degree of interest and the cooperation of the entire group, the Y.W.A. has been outstanding on the campus again this year.

The personal spiritual development of every girl at Virginia Intermont is an important phase of the work of the BAPTIST STUDENT UNION. This group strives to promote the spiritual development by sponsoring hall prayer meetings, prayermates, and such events as Religious Emphasis Week, Vocational Emphasis Week, and the "Student Night at Christmas" program. Thus, the three links—the Church, the B.S.U., and the College—are joined to give each girl a place in a well-balanced program of religious life. It seeks to give meaning to the phrase, "It's Collegiate To Be A Christian."

PHI THETA KAPPA

Phi Theta Kappa is a national junior college honorary scholastic fraternity. Virginia Intermont College claims proudly the Nu Chapter of this fraternity. At least twelve hours of liberal arts, an average of ninety per cent in all the classes, and a high standing in leadership, character, and service are necessary for membership. Miss Marguerite Pflug is sponsor of the fraternity. The officers are: President, Doris Davidson; Vice-President, Joan Miller; Secretary, Joanna Maiden; Treasurer, Ann Neblett. Other members are: June Crockett, Wanda Cervarich, and Dorris Watson. New pledges are Doris Lugar, Pauline Barr, Ella Campbell, Doris Mahanes, Frieda Phipps, Marilyn Preston, Janet Perry, Elaine Shaffer, Clarissa Smith, and Mary L. Walker.

PHI BETA

V. I. students with an exceptional talent in music may find themselves in Phi Beta, the national professional music fraternity for women. Phi Beta's purposes are to better music understanding and provide more opportunities for students to hear good music. Another goal is to start a music-lending library for the benefit of music students. The big project of the year was a concert combining the works of Brahms, Schumann, and Schubert. The officers are Marjorie Ziehl, President; Virginia Lucy, Vice-President; Louise Leslie, Secretary; Mary Anne Herndon, Treasurer; and Eunice Farmer, Editor-Historian.

ALPHA PI EPSILON

ALPHA PI EPSILON OFFICERS: Bettie Boyd, Janet Miller, Phyllis Long.

Alpha Eta chapter of Alpha Pi Epsilon is one of the twenty-eight chapters of a national honorary fraternity for Secretarial students. Its purpose is to stimulate an active interest in secretarial subjects and vocations, and to foster and promote a high standard of ideals and attainments in the field of secretarial science. Membership is honorary and is limited to students of superior scholarship. The officers are Janet Miller, President; Bettie Boyd, Vice-President; Phyllis Long, Secretary-Treasurer.

PHI ETA TAU

Phi Eta Tau is an honorary fraternity to further professional interest in physical education and to strive for the highest ideals in scholarship, sportsmanship, and leadership. The Phi Eta Tau is also designed to bring students in this field into closer relationships with each other and with their chosen professions. The leaders this year were: Frankie Fowler, President; Mary L. Walker, Vice-President; Anne Henderson, Secretary; Elizabeth Cook, Treasurer; and Barbara Gray, Historian.

DELTA PSI OMEGA

Membership in the Intermont chapter of this national honorary society is the reward to dramatic students for their outstanding efforts in acting and back-stage work in the productions and dramatic activities of the college. Each year Delta Psi Omega gives a play for the enjoyment of the entire college, and each spring it pledges new members. The club leaders this year were Ann Bingham, President; Marion Powers, Vice-President; and Doris Lugar, Secretary-Treasurer.

CURRY CLUB

"All the world's a stage . . ." Mr. Shakespeare must have written this especially for the members of V. I.'s oldest club, the Curry Club. All students taking Platform Art or classes in Dramatics are eligible for membership. The group meets regularly to present plays and readings which give every member a chance to display her talent. The club is under the sponsorship of Mrs. Eastman and the meetings are presided over by Anne Hawthorne, President; Norma Raoul, Vice-President; Rosemary Goodman, Secretary; and Betty Vance, Treasurer.

The Thespian Club is an honorary society for the high school dramatics students, and inspires them toward better work and greater appreciation for dramatic art. Members are chosen for their ability to act, backstage work, cooperation during productions, and interest assumed in class. This club was renewed two years ago and has proven more than successful in attaining its high standard. The climax of the year is when new pledges are received during a chapel program in the spring.

BETA CLUB

The Beta Club of the Preparatory Department is the little sister of Phi Theta Kappa. It is an honor society and a member of the National Association. To become a member, a Preparatory student must have a ninety per cent average in academic work and display leadership qualities. Pledges are received bi-annually in chapel programs which none will ever forget. The Beta Club is an incentive for every girl to aim toward doing her best to better her character, leadership, achievement, and scholarship ability.

JUNIOR ORCHESIS

Founded on V. I.'s campus in 1945, Junior Orchesis is the highest honor toward which modern dance students work. The members are selected by the sponsor, Mrs. George McIntyre. Each student presents her own complete choreography, costuming, and lighting for a dance to any type of stimulus which she wishes. This year the membership included eight students who presented "Song of the Open Road" at the Arts Forum in Greensboro, N. C., this spring. Officers for 1948 are Anne Henderson, President; and Marie Sleap, Secretary-Treasurer.

MODERN DANCE CLUB

The Modern Dance Club is an intermediate organization of students chosen at try-outs from modern dance classes who are working for Junior Orchesis. At the try-outs, students present their choreography in groups or alone, and are judged by the members. No student can make Orchesis without first being in Modern Dance Club. The officers for the fall term were: Margaret Eskew, President; and Margaret Jacobs, Secretary-Treasurer.

GLEE CLUB

"Blended voices are beautiful," and that can be said of the Glee Club. Everyone loves music and our girls are no exceptions. Singing to the veterans at the Mountain Home in Johnson City was one performance that they will never forget, but that was just one of the many programs in which they participated. Mrs. S. T. Schroetter has done a supreme job of directing, and the club has completed a year to be proud of. Leading the club are Sarah Shockley, President; Sally Wilson, Vice-President; Teddy Nelson, Secretary; Dot McDowell, Treasurer; and Rachel Cole, Librarian.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra, a member of the Student Division of the Virginia Federation of Music Clubs, is under the direction of Miss Virginia Rouse. Because of the increase in size and variety of instrumentation, the orchestra had a greater opportunity for preparing better works. The orchestra presented to the school a Christmas chapel program and, in February, a broadcast of classical and semi-classical music. The members have found occasion to study fundamentals of orchestral performance and of orchestral conducting. In addition to the spring concert, the orchestra also has a part in May Day.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

One of the most active clubs on campus is the Athletic Association. During the year, the association sponsors all recreational activities on campus as well as arranging athletic contests with other schools. Every girl entering any of the after-school sports automatically holds membership in the A. A. The annual song contest, athletic week, A. A. banquet, and all physical education honors are sponsored by the organization. This year the A. A. duties were efficiently handled by its executive council composed of Anne Henderson, President; Phyllis Farmer, Vice-President; and Marian Baldwin, Secretary-Treasurer. To them we owe many events worthy of the council's sponsorship. These activities will long be a pleasant reminder of the work well done by the A. A.

TUMBLING CLUB

For two years, the Tumbling Club has held a very prominent place on V. I.'s campus. The students strive for an all-round development of the body and to bring suppleness and easy control of movement. The club experiments which various techniques and complicated pyramidal structures. There is an excellent assortment of equipment constantly on hand in the gym. The club was organized by Miss Keezel and under her supervision has maintained an enjoyable and educational program. The officers are: Carol McCallister, President; Libby Cook, Vice-President; Jean DeJarnette, Secretary.

BOOTS AND SADDLE CLUB

BOOTS AND SADDLE CLUB OFFICERS: Sally Ann Graham, Margaret Harlan, Sarah Pritchett.

"They're off", yes, they are off to the riding ring and the beautiful Virginia trails. All those who take riding are eligible for membership in the club. Not only does the club promote horsemanship but also sportsmanship with the Sunday afternoon rides and moonlight suppers plus the Annual Horse Show. Unforgettable are the club meetings, the Annual Banquet, and the many enjoyable hours spent down at the stables. The officers are Betty Boatman, President; Margaret Harlan, Vice-President; Sally Ann Graham, Secretary; and Sarah Pritchett, Treasurer. All this is made possible by their experienced teacher and leader, Mrs. Edwards, and her assistant, Miss Dewey.

H_2O CLUB

H_2O CLUB MEMBERS: Phyllis Long, Mary Anne Flowers, Jo Ann Leighty, Libby Cook, Jo Ann Rhodes, Sally Anne Graham, Mary Morris, Barbara Underwood, Marian Baldwin.

The H_2O Club is composed of ten members chosen from a select few having passed courses in Senior Life Saving and Instructors Swimming. During recreational hours, one of the group can always be found alert and prepared for any situation that might arise at the pool. These girls have skill as well as form and are competent teachers. They are presided over by Mary Morris, President; and Marion Baldwin, Secretary-Treasurer; and are excellently directed by Miss Droste.

DEBATE CLUB

The Debating Club offers training for those girls who are especially apt in the art of applying the wisdom of the ages. The ability to speak effectively is an asset to any student; but to the student in a position of leadership, it is a necessity. Long hours of research and study on such problems as Federal World Government are bountifully rewarded in the pleasures afforded by debating with neighboring college teams. The President is Phyllis Farmer and the Secretary is Ann Aull.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

In 1946 the Intermont Chapter of the International Relations Club was founded under the direction of Dr. James Turner, the present sponsor. The chapter is a member of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace and has two meetings each month consisting of either a speaker or a round table discussion of a current problem. The purpose of the club is to encourage individual thought and opinion on both national and international affairs. This year's project was adopting a French family and sending it food and clothing. The officers are: President, Wanda Cervarich; Vice-President, Bettie Wysor; and Secretary, Alice Hill.

Y-TEENS

Y-Teens, formerly known as Girl Reserves, are the junior members of the Y.W.C.A. The purpose of this organization is to better relations among high school girls, to increase a charitable and democratic spirit, and to deepen the spiritual attitude of each member. These girls have worked hard to carry out these principles and have been co-operative in every way. Their main project was the Y-Teen scholarship awarded to the girl meeting the necessary qualifications and selected by the organization. The officers are: President, Mary Jo Baldwin; Vice-President, Patsy Edwins; Secretary, Shela Jo Duby; and Treasurer, Eleanore Everhard.

DAY STUDENTS' CLUB

The Day Students' Club is composed of students living in and around Bristol who come to V. I. and do not reside in the dorms. The Day Students' Hut is their hang-out where most of their extra time is spent. Besides the special social activities which are planned for the Day Students throughout the year, they are included in the other activities of the school, which make them have more of the V. I. spirit. The officers of the Day Students' Club are: President, Bettie Lane Barnhill; Vice-President, Peggy Presley; Secretary, Nancy Cross.

ART CLUB

The Art Club is a group designed for the purpose of adding to the cultural life at V. I. It holds meetings twice a month to discuss the art activities of V. I. and of the world. The members make cards for different seasons, give exhibits in town, and maintain an art bulletin board display at school. The mediums used most are oils, water colors, and pastels. During the year, the members have parties and teas as well as special exhibits in the Art Department. The officers of the club are: President, Janet Jolliffe; Vice-President, Martina Wadewitz; Secretary, June Fairfield; and Treasurer, Charmian Werly.

NOSTRAE FILIAE CLUB

The Nostrae Filiae Club was organized last year by Mrs. Crockett for the V. I. students whose mothers or grandmothers attended V. I. They are connected with the Alumnae Association at Intermont and help with its activities, including teas, banquets, and reunions of all ages of alumnae. As their main project this year, the Nostrae Filiae Club presented a three-act play on April 3. The officers are Joanna Maiden, President; Anne Neblett, Vice-President; Virginia Char, Secretary-Treasurer; and Marjorie Ziehl, Publicity Manager.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

HOME EC. CLUB OFFICERS: Betty Sue Dale, Ruth Warren, Jackie Sprinkle, Nancy Henderson

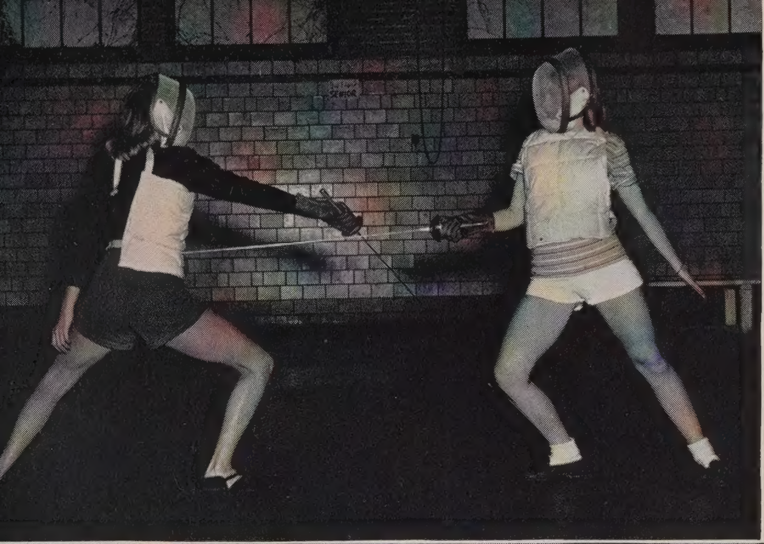
Boasting of many services on campus, the Home Economics Club has a goal of successful home making. The members entertained at the General Howell Birthday Tea, had a Christmas party for the Janie Hammit Home, and have sent a CARE package to Europe. The club has had various social gatherings, which included a week-end jaunt to Dr. Edwards' cabin and a spring fashion review from Sterling House. Under the wise counsel of Miss Miller, their sponsor, the Home Economics Club officers, Ruth Warren, President; Nancy Henderson, Vice-President; Betty Sue Dale, Secretary; and Jackie Sprinkle, Treasurer; have directed their group well.

TIP AND RUN CLUB

TIP AND RUN CLUB OFFICERS: Barbara Harris, Mary L. Walker, Janet Jolliffe.

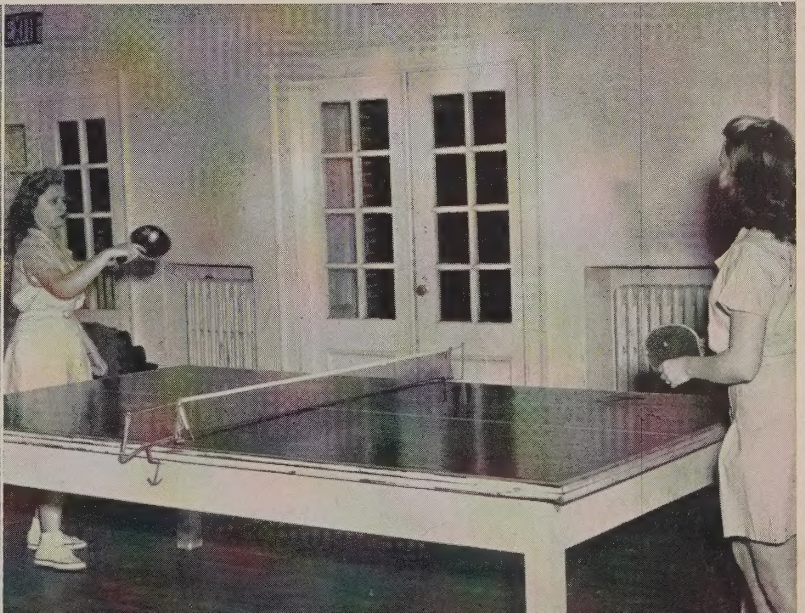
White starched aprons, pots of steaming coffee, smiles, and quick service—yes, these things typify the girls of the Tip and Run Club. Since eating is a big campus activity we commend the dining room girls for the wonderful work they do. The members have enjoyed several activities during the year; movies and snacks, a Christmas party and the highlight of the year, the banquet for the club. The club officers are: Mary L. Walker, President; Barbara Harris, Vice-President; Janet Jolliffe, Secretary-Treasurer.

ATHLETICS

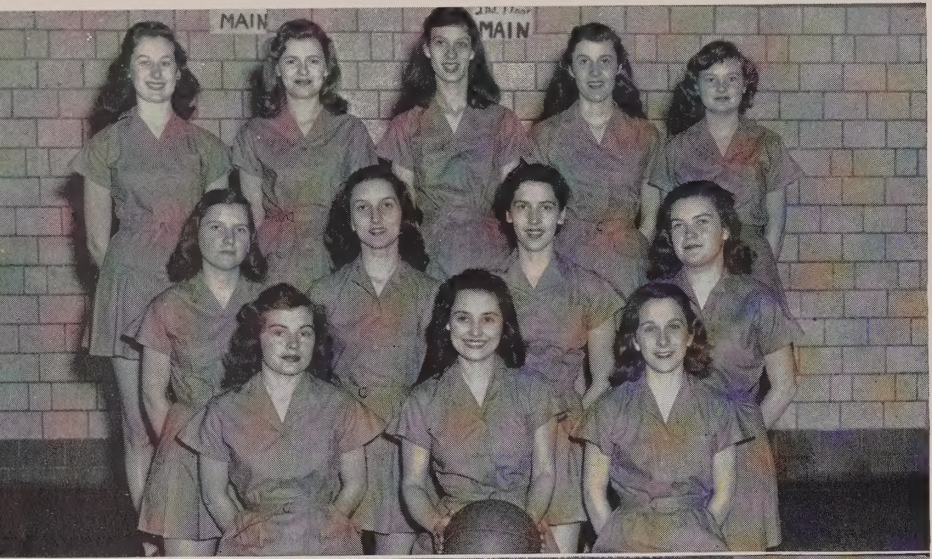


INDOOR SPORTS

Will it be badminton, ping-pong, shuffleboard, volley ball, or fencing? The choice is yours for each is at your disposal. V. I. is well versed on indoor sports. The competition is keen, and the awards are highly coveted. Whether it be in the volley ball court or "slamming" an over-worked ping-pong ball, you'll find good, clean fun with "sportsmanship" and "friendship" as your two most outstanding teammates.



BASKETBALL



The crowd leaps to its feet as the tall, lanky girl receives the swift pass from across court. She dribbles once, then quickly sights a teammate. The pass is good, and the ball is in shooting position. It's in the air! It's good! The applause is loud and long as the girls quickly retreat to their positions. They have only begun. There will be more passes, more dribbles, and more goals. A game of coordination and teamwork—this is basketball—a game worthy of its high place of honor on V. I.'s campus.

HOCKEY

The nervous, excited team takes its place on the field, and the ball is set in position on the 50 yard line. As the whistle blows, the center forwards tighten their grips. The bully begins—and so does one of the most exciting games of the year—hockey. The cry of "sticki," the 25 yard bully, the swift assurance of the nimble hockey stick, and the hard, clean driver make hockey a sport for better physical education, better teamwork, and all-round good sportsmanship.

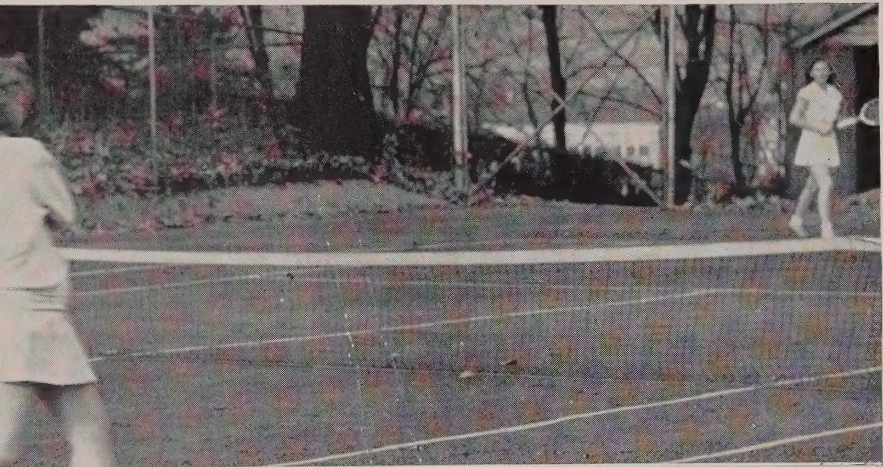
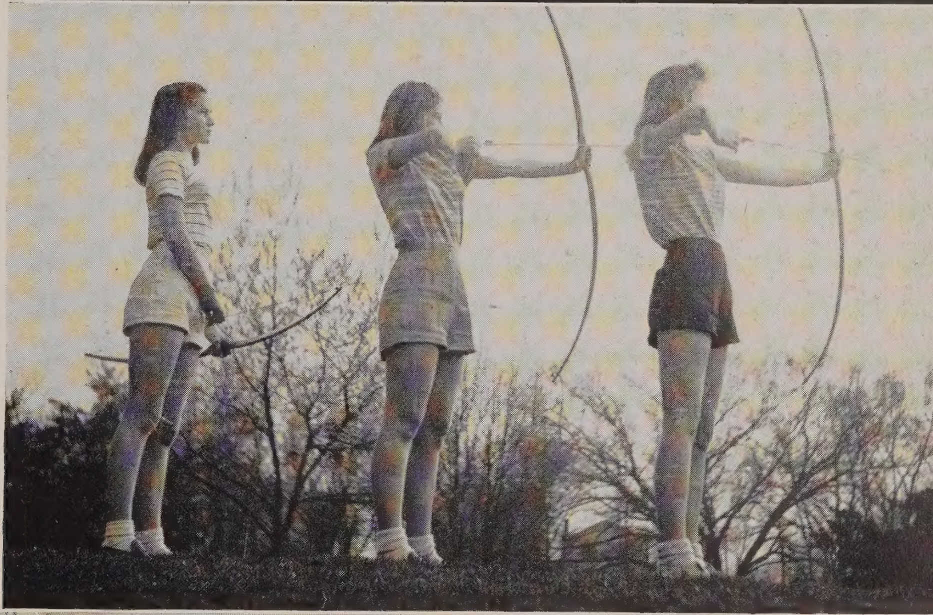
TENNIS



"Ready—serve" is an old familiar phrase echoed many times around the tennis courts swarmed with ardent tennis lovers. Whether it be faculty or students, some merely ping around while others go in for the sport in a big way. The competitive tennis tournaments greatly stimulate the interest of the sport on campus and also add points to the students' 1000 point Athletic Award. The exciting tennis play-offs will long be a remembrance of the days at V. I. when sportsmanship was at its height.

ARCHERY

We find walking on the front campus in the fall and spring a very dangerous procedure. Arrows shot from the dell fly swiftly overhead. Why it's none other than Miss Keezel and her archery class taking a breezy aim for the bull's eye. The archery tournaments are clean, fun-loving, and exciting events at V. I., and are sponsored by the Athletic Association.



SOFTBALL

"I've got it." "I'ts a homer!" "Slide"—this means only one thing—softball again! As spring comes, so does the crack of the bat, the sting of the ball in the fielder's glove, and everything else that automatically means softball. With the final sport of the year, the High School, Junior, and Senior classes once more meet in friendly competition to see who will earn, through their outstanding abilities in the field of sports and their unquestionable high record of good sportsmanship, the coveted award of the year—the Sports Trophy.

RIDING

We hear a clip, clip, clop and a cry of "canter" as the long line of frisky, anxious horses starts out on the trail for a Sunday ride over the surrounding Virginia landscape. As they take off with the swift, graceful movement of a well-trained animal, every horse has a devoted and faithful rider, and every rider has her "baby". So whether it's round and round you go or off over the beautiful green hills, it's fun to be a horsewoman at V. I.

VIRGINIA INTERMONT
VIRGINIA INTERMONT

SWIMMING

One of V. I.'s most popular sports is swimming. From September to May the pool is filled with enthusiastic water lovers. Recreational swimming is offered every afternoon from 5 to 6 and on Sunday evenings. The H_2O Club, composed of outstanding swimmers, is one of the most active clubs on the campus. Water Safety and the Instructors courses are taught by capable instructors. An annual water pageant is presented in the spring as a climax to the swimming department's work—Well done!

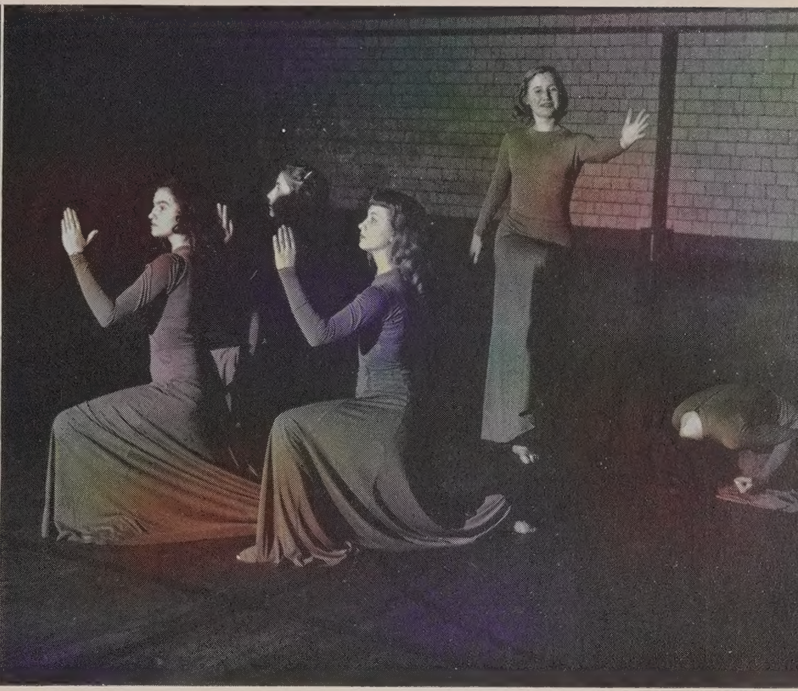
DANCING



Because dance is as effective aid in developing well-poised bodies, the department of physical education has a complete dance department offering modern, social, ballet, tap, and toe dance. Modern dance includes techniques, choreography, the study of famous men and women in the field, and the study of costume designing and lighting. In tap dance, students are taught body coordination and a sense of timing as well as the latest tap steps. Ballet and toe include traditional classic training plus a history of ballets and ballerinas. In social dance, all types of dance and steps are taught. All students enrolled in dance classes other than social appear in May Day at the close of the school year.

Miss Doris Lugar
Editor-in-Chief, "Intermont"
VIRGINIA INTERMONT COLLEGE
Bristol, Virginia

Dear Miss Lugar:

It has been a great pleasure to judge the beauty contest for your yearbook, "Intermont." The photographs of the candidates, which you submitted, were all so attractive that I found it difficult to make a decision. It was also difficult to make my selection without seeing and talking to each contestant.

The winners were selected on the basis of personality, character, and intelligence, as well as for natural beauty. My choice was influenced, of course, by my great interest in and admiration for the Natural Girl.

If the contestants are ever in New York, it would be a pleasure to meet them. With best wishes to the contestants, to the staff of the "Intermont" and to the students of VIRGINIA INTERMONT COLLEGE, I am

Sincerely yours,

John Robert Powers

Each year, the little world that is Intermont has students from foreign countries and distant places. This year there have been twenty-two.

They bring to Intermont their native cultures and talents, their strange beauty, and their singing hearts; and when they go away, they leave something that was not here before.

Intermont gives to these girls who come from far away a spirit, an ideal, a way of thought and life that is the American woman.

In such ways the little world of Intermont helps to bring about the one big, better world that is to be.

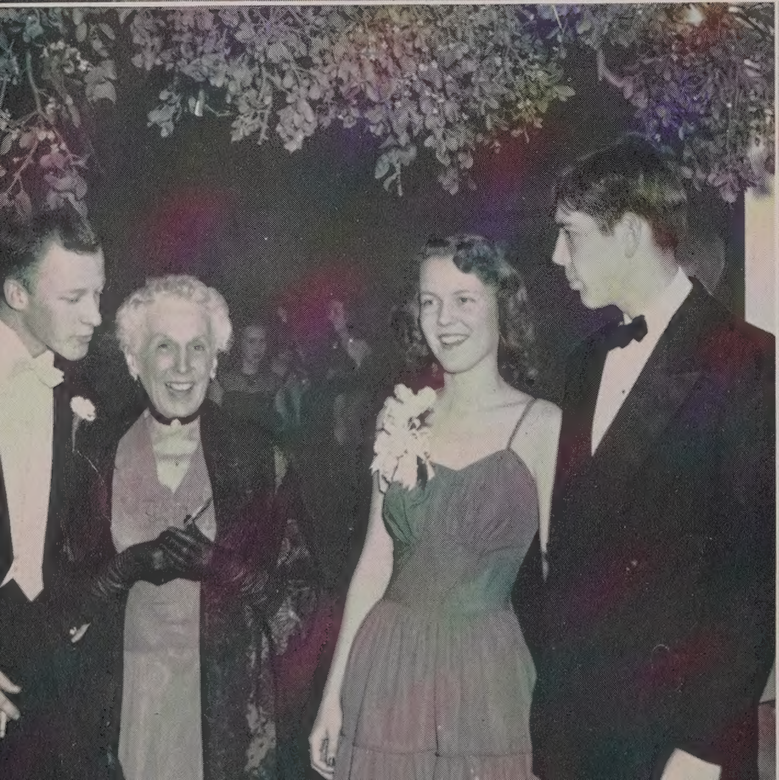
These are a Part

There is no one thing that can be pointed out to be symbolic of our life at V. I. There are innumerable events and people which together give us the "V. I." feeling. It takes the love, understanding, and cooperation of everyone.

On the day of the Kiwanis Outing, we were still just a group of people—not much united—but on that first big event the beginning of our "family life" came about. The Harvest Carnival proved to be a true gayety with Otis Andrews and Jo Ann Rhodes as King and Queen.



of Our V. I.

Class spirit united in good sportsmanship and praise at the Song Contest and the Junior-Senior basketball game. Rat Day brought joy to the upper classmen. The spirit of Christmas prevailed in warmth and splendor at the Christmas dance.

The Junior Class presented a real old time minstrel produced by their president, starring members of their class. On March 6, the pages of the INTERMONT were opened wide as the '48 Annual Staff walked through to be presented with their annual bracelets—a symbol of hard work, and a job well done.

SNAP SHOTS

These, Too, Were Indispensable

Before laying aside our pencils, we, the INTERMONT Staff, want to complete our yearbook with an acknowledgment of gratitude to the unheralded members of V. I. — those people who have devoted their time and energies so generously. In them we find the foundation for the ideal that is Intermont.

Keeper of the night—Mr. Thomas quietly resumes his vigil from night to night. Under his watchful eye, Intermont sleeps in peaceful security and fearless dreams.

Jack of all trades—Mr. Stanley Roberts and his crew can do anything from making scenery for a play to repairing electrical equipment.

Poet laureate of V. I.—Walter Young's inspirational poetry and bountiful wisdom bring delightful satisfaction to the lives of all who know him. His optimistic personality reaches out like a ray of sunshine d brightens the day for his many friends.

Restorers of cleanliness—Annie, Hazel, and the others add their cheerful humor and easy-going ways to our hallowed halls and find a iding place in our memory.

Bringer of glad tidings—Lucretia is always bringing someone a phone call or a box of flowers sprinkled with good-natured smiles.

Guardians of V. I.—These and many more are endeared to us for their unceasing efforts and notable contributions to our second home—Intermont.

OUR DADS

We, the daughters, are both proud and happy to dedicate these pages to our fathers who have unselfishly opened to us the doors of opportunity.

CONFIDENCE

Confidence has nothing to do with age or size. Though we're old in years and the largest store in this region, we're built on the confidence our customers have placed in us as a store of integrity, honest merchandising and truthful advertising. Your confidence is the main thing we prize . . . and trust that we may continually merit.

THE H. P. KING COMPANY

THANK YOU!

Each and every one for your patronage during the past year. We wish you the happiest of summers.

BUNTING'S FOR DRUGS

Bunting's touches the life of Virginia Intermont as closely as any business in Bristol. It is a great satisfaction to us to know that our Pharmaceutical Department has cooperated with the College Infirmary for many years in protecting the health of V. I. students. All of your films from the bookstore are finished in our Photographic Department, and our Soda Fountain and Toilet Department have always catered to Bristol students. We appreciate your patronage.
